NIXON PARTY GUARDED AFTER ATTACK—Yelling crowds race along side the motor caravan carrying Vice President Nixon and his party into Caracas, Venezuela, following the attack on the Nixon group at the airport. Mobile police lead the way and armed guards marched alongside the cars to protect the party against further attacks. (AP Wirephoto via radio from Port of Spain, Trinidad).

SMASHED NIXON CAR—Here is a closeup of the shattered windows of the car in which Vice President Nixon rode through jeering Venezuelan mobs in Caracas. The vice president's car was badly dented and its windows broken by kicks and blows from sticks and lead pipes. Nixon was not injured in the anti-United States demonstration.

Eisenhower Declares Inter-American Ties Will Be Improved

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Eisenhower warmly welcomed Vice President Nixon home from South America today and said Communist-inspired riots against him there would simply strengthen inter-American friendship.

And from thousands of citizens and well-wishers there was a roaring welcome for the vice president and his wife.

The thousands packed about the airport and gathered along the roadways into Washington.

Diplomats, congressional leaders and Cabinet officers joined the President in the official welcoming group.

In predicting the rudeness to the Nixons in Peru and Venezuela will, in the end, strengthen inter-American ties, Eisenhower said it would have this result because the American nations in their common association resent any Communist leadership against their unity and interest.

Nixon, in response to Eisenhower, attributed the mob attacks to a minority who did not understand the purposes of the United States.

He said the great majority of the people in all walks of life are friendly to the United States today.

Eisenhower paid high personal tribute to Nixon, saying the vice president under trying conditions had conducted himself efficiently, effectively and with great dignity.

The vice president and his wife came from Puerto Rico this morning, arriving at 11:57 a.m.

New Pflimlin Government Wins Support Against Military Coup

PARIS—Premier Pierre Pflimlin's new government won Socialist aid today in the struggle against the spreading French military coup in Algeria.

Former Premier Guy Mollet, as leader of the Socialist party, agreed to become deputy premier. Mollet's decision is expected to be followed by a gesture to the French colonialists and military in Algeria, who underscored their defiance of Paris by organizing additional "committees of public safety."

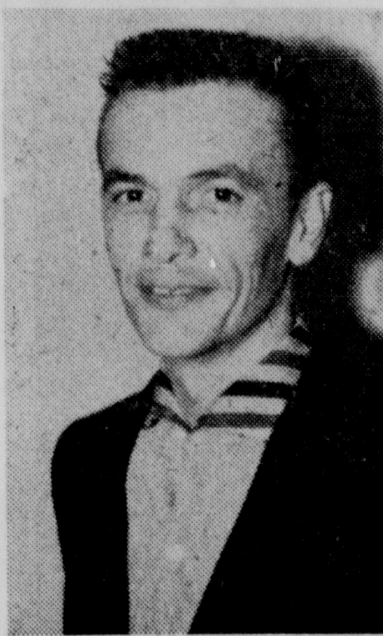

This gesture would be the reappointment of Robert Lacoste as minister for Algeria. Although a Socialist, he is acceptable to Frenchmen in Algeria demanding no compromise in the battle to stamp out the 2½-year-old Algerian nationalist rebellion.

Defense Minister Pierre de Chevigne took new measures against the military in Algeria and "Rightist-Communist troublemakers at home."

He sent orders to all ministry commanders to enforce rigid discipline and suppress any agitation among the troops. Commanders in Algeria were told to report directly to the Defense Ministry, instead of to the high command in Algiers. There was no indication whether the officers in Algeria were obeying.

More than 16,000 reinforcements were brought in to help Paris police keep order. Armored units ringed the capital were on constant alert.

Rioters in Algiers who touched off the crisis Tuesday stayed quiet under orders of the head of the dissident junta, paratrooper Brig. Gen. Jacques Massu.

Thomas P. Baker

Lions Select President For 1958-59

Club Names Other Officers at Meet For Coming Year

Thomas P. "Tom" Baker, 1402 South Warren, will be the new president of the Sedalia Lions Club for the year of 1958-59. Baker was elected at the regular meeting Wednesday.

Baker, a member of the Sedalia Lions Club the past five years, has served the local club four of those years as secretary. He is not a young Lion, having transferred his membership from the Queen City Lions Club at Springfield to Sedalia.

He is a pharmacist at the Hurt Drug Pharmacy. Baker is a veteran of World War II, serving in the Navy as a pharmacist's mate third class. He is married and has three children.

The new president will succeed President A. B. Warren.

Other officers elected were: George James, first vice-president; Don King, second vice-president; and Russell Rhoads, third vice-president. Ralph Becker was elected secretary and will succeed Baker. Bill Hiatt was elected treasurer; Ray Baker, Tail Twister; and Jim Askren, Lion Tamer.

Two new directors were elected, Bob Cain and Jim Hobdy, to succeed Russell Rhoads and Jack Pasley. The two hold-over directors are Ken Leslie and Al Domingue.

Installation of the new officers will be held at a Ladies' Night meeting Wednesday, June 25.

The program for the meeting Wednesday was a talk by Leon "Eli" Whitney on "Mentally Retarded Children." Whitney who is speech therapist at the Crippled Children's Center, outlined in his talk the type of education which can be given these children. He also spoke on the custodial care of children in certain stages.

Guests at the meeting were Harold Barrick and Walter Gault, of Lion Whitney.

Jack Delph announced he was to hold an auction on a pointer dog at the club within the next

Soviet Sends Third, Largest Sputnik Aloft

Red Satellite Weighs Close To 1½ Tons

List of Equipment Given, No Mention Of Live Passenger

MOSCOW—(AP)—The Soviet Union today launched its third and largest Sputnik, an 11.9-foot cone weighing nearly a ton and a half.

A special announcement by Tass, official Soviet news agency, said the new earth satellite, fired in connection with the Soviet International Geophysical Year program, was jammed with apparatus and instruments for probing the secrets of outer space.

The announcement gave no indication that the latest satellite carried a living passenger, a companion to the dog Laika which went up and died with Sputnik II. Instead it listed the numerous items of equipment with which it said the new Sputnik would report on the upper layers of the earth's atmosphere as "a contribution of Soviet scientists to world science."

The announcement gave no indication of the launching power of the new Sputnik nor the location of its launching site.

It reported the Sputnik was orbiting normally at the rate of one circuit of the earth every 106 minutes and reaching a maximum altitude of 1,168 miles. The weight was announced as 2,919.53 pounds or more than double the 1,120-pound weight the Russians reported for Sputnik II.

The new Sputnik joins three American satellites circling in outer space, the largest of them weighing 30.8 pounds. Russia's two earlier satellites have re-entered the earth's lower atmosphere and disintegrated.

The announcement said the satellite entered its orbit at an angle of 65 degrees to the equatorial plane, indicating it will cover almost the entire inhabited part of the earth from close to the Arctic Circle to just above the Antarctic Circle.

Man Seriously Hurt

Beirut Shaken Again By Explosions, Shots

BEIRUT, Lebanon—Beirut was shaken again today by explosions, sniping from building tops and battles between police and rioters.

Seven bombs exploded during the night but calm generally prevailed until midmorning. Then rioters surged through the streets in demonstrations against the pro-Western government of President Camille Chamoun.

An explosion rocked the Place de Canon in the heart of the business district and several persons were killed. Police quickly cordoned off the area and rounded up more than 100 people.

Snipers on the roofs of buildings fired at people in the streets and demonstrators fought to disrupt normal life in the city.

The United States is flying weapons to Lebanon, where disturbances have been under way for six days.

A general strike, which earlier choked off normal business activity in Beirut, lost momentum. Shops began to open again, even in the riot-ridden Moslem quarter where opposition leader Saeb Salameh lives.

Although authorities seemed to be gaining the upper hand throughout most of the country, Tripoli and other parts of north Lebanon still were dominated by opponents of Chamoun. In some areas, opposition political leaders were said to be losing control of rioters.

Lebanese armored cars brought eight Americans and two Cypriot girls to the capital from the Bekaa Valley, in east Lebanon.

Beirut was quieter after an estimated 20 persons were killed here Monday and Tuesday. U.S. Ambassador Robert McClintock said he had no intention of moving Americans out of the capital city. But the chartered ship Jackson Creek was sent to the north Lebanese port of Tripoli, where 53 Americans were being urged by U.S. diplomats to go to Beirut.

Several ships of the U.S. 6th Fleet suddenly sailed from Gibraltar toward Lebanon and British vessels also were steaming eastward in the Mediterranean. Both Washington and London said the ships were part of a "routine NATO naval exercise" planned before rioting began Saturday.

But the ship movements and a U.S. announcement it was doubling its Marine force with the 6th Fleet to a total of 3,200 Marines was generally viewed as a show of strength.

The idea seemed to be to warn President Nasser's United Arab Republic not to send troops into Lebanon, as well as to have the forces ready if American civilians in Beirut were endangered.

Civic Leader In Appleton City Is Killed

APPLETON CITY, Mo.—Authorities are trying to determine the cause of a bitter quarrel which erupted in the slaying of Floyd Bowman, 63-year-old druggist and civic leader.

They arrested Amos Pointer, 74-year-old retired dairyman, and took him to the St. Clair County jail at Osceola. Sheriff Shirley Collins said Pointer signed a statement admitting the shooting.

Acquaintances of the two said Bowman and Pointer had been quarreling for several days over some business matters but they did not know the nature of the disagreement. Officer said Pointer acknowledged he and Bowman quarreled but declined to give the reason.

Bowman was a director of the Citizens Bank and active in the Methodist Church. He and his wife have no children. Mrs. Bowman was at Republic, Mo., visiting her mother, Mrs. C. G. Askins.

National Farm Union Opens Campaign for Wheat Quotas

BONN, Germany (AP)—Years ago, in his student days, Franz Joseph Strauss won the Bavarian state championship in cross-country bicycling. He has been furiously pedaling ever since.

Riding another sort of vehicle, Strauss—in a country where youth is a political liability—has emerged at 42 as Bonn's defense minister. He is a leading candidate to succeed Konrad Adenauer as chancellor, and a favored whipping boy of the political opposition.

As a staunch advocate of atomic rearmament for West Germany, Strauss has also arrived on a nuclear hotseat; there are many Germans who have profound reservations about such a course.

Considered a tough, knowledgeable, and honest leader by his supporters, his political foes refer to him as a dangerous politician, demagogue and warmonger. All are agreed that the bull-like, sharp-witted Strauss has tremendous drive, a gift of rhetoric, and an enviable capacity for Bavarian beer.

Thirteen years ago Strauss was a first lieutenant in the shattered German army, with dubious prospects. He got his first break because he knew English; he was hired as an interpreter by U.S. military government authorities in Bavaria.

It was the first small step of what is perhaps the most spectacular political career in postwar Germany.

Early in 1946, he extended his public activity by running for an administrative post in Schonau County, where he had served with the military government. He was elected. Two years later the voters sent him to the American-British zonal Parliament.

A year later he was elected to the first postwar national Parliament, and he's been re-elected ever since.

Adenauer recognized his capabilities early and appointed him to his Cabinet as minister without portfolio in 1953. A year later Strauss became minister for atomic affairs, charged with building up an atomic industry in West Germany.

Strauss needed only a few months to grasp the basics of atomic physics well enough to address Germany's leading scientific brains on the subject of "Atom: Threat or Promise," and win their applause.

Even among his political supporters there are some who regard him as an opportunist using the Defense Ministry as a stepping stone toward the chancellorship.

Strauss himself laughs this off: "I know my limits. Just thinking about the responsibility that goes with the job of chancellor gives me the creeps."

Chancellor Of Austria To Visit US

VIENNA (AP)—Austria's conservative chancellor, Julius Raab, leaves Friday to visit President Eisenhower and tour the United States for three weeks.

His view is that while little Austria is militarily neutral there can be no political neutrality, that Austrians overwhelmingly are for the West.

Raab (pronounced Rob) has said this many times, even in 1955 at a party the Kremlin hierarchy gave for him and his delegation during negotiations for the Austrian Freedom Treaty. He took occasion to say it again in a recent discussion with reporters.

This will be Raab's first visit to the United States since 1954, when he went as far west as St. Louis and also visited Canada. At 66 he is a round-faced, bespectacled, smiling and fatherly looking man who has made quite a good comeback from a stroke suffered last August.

Behind Raab's smiling visage is a shrewd brain that won him a fortune as an engineer and road builder before he went into politics. He won a new four-year term as chancellor in the May 1956 general elections. His conservative People's Party won 82 parliamentary seats against the socialists' 75. The margin was too narrow to permit the People's Party to govern alone so it has the socialists as a coalition partner.

Says Raab: "When I go to Washington I will tell President Eisenhower I think the No. 1 world problem is the reunification of Germany. Also that East Germany is a potential Hungary where an anti-Russian revolt may break out."

Raab is a Roman Catholic, like West Germany's venerable Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, whom he admires.

Raab said he believes the reunification of Germany should be worked out "by a four-power conference, which also solved the problems of Trieste and the Austrian state treaty."

Raab says Austria is "politically healthier than France and Italy" because those countries have strong Communist parties while Austria has a sliver of a Communist party. Many West Germans make the same claim for their country.

Rebels Holding Parts of Santa Cruz Province

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP)—Rebels held parts of oil-rich Santa Cruz Province today but the Bolivian government claimed to have headed off a nationwide uprising.

President Hernan Siles Zuazo ordered troops to the eastern province and declared a state of siege—modified martial law—over the entire country.

The government said the revolt was led by Santa Cruz leaders of the extreme right-wing Falange and the Communists.

An official spokesman said their aim was to stir up a nationwide revolt that would interfere with parliamentary elections in June and prevent the return of former President Victor Paz Estenssoro, who has been ambassador to London for two years. He heads the government MNR party, the National Revolutionary Movement.

Recent riots and demonstrations in Santa Cruz have protested Siles' policy of depositing all revenues from the nationalized oil industry in the federal treasury and leaving none for the provincial government.

A government spokesman identified the revolt's leaders as Communist Carlos Valverde and Falangist Mario Gutierrez. The spokesman added that many high government leaders had been marked for arrest and President

Secret Service Breaks Counterfeit Bill Ring

WASHINGTON (AP)—A ring that allegedly passed thousands of dollars in fake bills in 14 states has been broken up by the Secret Service.

Secret Service Chief U. E. Baughman announced Wednesday that 13 persons had been arrested and that more arrests were expected. He said the investigation began last November when bogus money appeared in Indianapolis.

Baughman said about $23,000 in counterfeit $10, $20 and $50 bills have been passed and that Secret Service agents have seized about $185,000 in fake currency.

The announcement was made after John Wesley Riadon, 41, and William Earl Smith, 30, were arrested at the Nashville, Tenn., airport. Baughman said the two men had $60,000 in phony money in their possession. The Secret Service chief said there had been 11 previous arrests, starting in Atlanta last December.

Baughman said Riadon admitted he made the money near Donelson, Tenn., and that Smith was his principal distributor.

Favors Levy Cut

Congress Appears Against A General Tax Reduction

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sentiment appeared to be solidifying in Congress today against any general tax reduction and in favor of cuts in some excise levies.

Four key senators said in separate interviews they believe excise reductions would give a greater stimulus to the economy than action to lower income taxes.

President Eisenhower was described by an influential Republican senator as indicating at White House meetings that he is opposed to a general tax cut. This Republican said the President always brings up the issue of where the money is coming from to pay for government expenses if taxes are reduced.

This sort of thinking appeared to be taking hold among some Democrats.

Sen. Robert S. Kerr (D-Okl.), a member of the Senate Finance Committee, said he will support action to revise the 10 per cent levy on automobiles, the 3 per cent on freight and the 10 per cent charge on passenger transportation.

Kerr predicted corporation taxes will be held at 52 per cent and that individual income levies will remain unchanged.

Corporation income tax rates and some excise levies are due to drop June 30 unless Congress extends them at present rates.

"I don't believe there would be any net benefit to the economy in a general tax reduction made out of borrowed money," Kerr said.

Sen. Irving M. Ives (R-NY) discounted chances of a general tax cut this year.

"Any reductions we might make ought to be in specialized fields that will provide a direct stimulus to business, such as the auto and freight taxes," he said.

Sen. Albert Gore (D-Tenn.), a finance committeeman, said he doesn't find any sentiment, particularly from his state, for a general tax reduction. He said he would favor readjustment of the excise levies.

Sen. John Bricker (R-Ohio) said he will vote to wipe out all of the excise levies except those on tobacco and liquor.

Chairman Warren G. Magnuson (Wash.) of the Senate Commerce Committee said he was informed the administration is preparing to recommend reductions

Pedego-Wilson Marriage

At half past two o'clock Sunday afternoon, May 4, Mrs. Elizabeth Pedego, Tipton, and Henry Wilson, formerly of Yakima, Wash., were united in marriage at First Christian Church, Tipton. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Igo before an altar decorated with spring flowers.

Miss Mary Evelyn Pedego, granddaughter of the bride, and Carl Folkerts Jr., were the attendants.

The bride wore a navy blue lace over satin dress with powder blue accessories and corsage of powder blue carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church reception room. The bride's table was covered with a linen cloth and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. The base of the cake was decorated with an arrangement of greenery and pink tulips and on either side were white tapers in crystal holders.

Mrs. Clifford Pedego poured the punch and Mrs. Thomas Veulemans and Betty Joe served the cake.

After a trip to the south the couple will reside on the groom's farm near Tipton.

Most Nursery Accessories Easy on the Family Budget

By KAY SHERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer

Decorating a nursery or a corner reserved for baby's needs can be a pleasant undertaking.

We can indulge in a bit of whimsy and we can make things ourselves, knowing that if they don't turn out perfect, baby's not going to object.

If we use our imagination we can find decorative ideas around us that will cost very little to put into effect.

The brightly colored picture book characters just appearing on baby cereal boxes, for example, suggest a gay wall decoration.

Those bunnies, cows, teddy bears, tures by twos or threes and join together with a length of ribbon, spacing units a couple inches apart to give good balance.

Loop the ribbon through a curtain ring to make it easy to hang and top off each set with a perky bow, safety-pinned to the ribbon.

Still another colorful addition can be a screen divider fitted with shelves to keep nursery necessities within easy reach.

To make it, you position a three-panel screen the way you want it and screw shelves to the framework. The handy man or the lumber yard can angle a wood shelf at each end to fit.

If the screen will be used primarily as a partial divider and convenience shelf, you can work a pretty open work pattern with in the frames.

White or colored plastic clothesline laced through screw eyes placed around the inside of the frame makes a modern divider that won't shut out light or air.

Two shelves is about all an ordinary-size screen can take. Enamel the top shelf for a smooth, washable surface and use it to store the items needed for daily baby care: baby oil, soap, sterile cotton balls, powder or cornstarch and any special ointment for skin care.

A lower shelf is a good place to stack clean diapers and towels.

Charlie Anaitok, an eskimo who lives on Hudson Bay, recently visited Montreal, his first sight of a major city. What shocked him most was seeing city people eating fried chicken without knife and fork. "I thought only Eskimos ate with their bare hands," he said.

Krumm-Oland Vows Repeated At Pilot Grove Church

Miss Margaret Lucille Krumm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Krumm, Pilot Grove, and James G. Oland, Kansas City, were united in marriage at the St. Joseph Catholic Church, Pilot Grove, on April 26 at half past nine o'clock in the morning. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Harris before an altar decorated with pink and white gladioli and ferns.

Sister Mary Hugh played the wedding music and was accompanist for the choir. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle, fashioned with a neckline of scalloped lace. Her French illusion veil fell from a tiara of pearls. Her cascade bouquet was of white roses and carnations.

Mrs. Joe Schlotzhauer, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Mrs. James Krumm served as bridesmaid. They wore identical gowns of light blue taffeta with ballerina length skirts. Their wide brim picture hats were of matching taffeta with a clasp of pink and white carnations at the back. They carried bouquets of pink and white carnations.

James Krumm, brother of the bride, was best man and Joe Schlotzhauer served as groomsmen. Ushers were Robert Zeller, Pilot Grove, and Steve O'Neil, Kansas City. After the ceremony a luncheon was served at the Hotel Frederick, Boonville, for the bridal party and the immediate families. A reception was held at St. Joseph's Hall in Pilot Grove.

As her going away ensemble the bride chose a navy blue suit and hat with white accessories. She wore a corsage of white roses and carnations.

Following a wedding trip to Maryland the couple will make their home in Kansas City.

Mrs. Hurt Hostess To Longwood WSCS

The Longwood WSCS met at the home of Mrs. Raymond Hurt, Star Route, Thursday afternoon, May 8. Mrs. Greer and Miss Brashear presented the program, "The March of Mission Dollars". Each member signed a pledge card at the close of the service.

Following the business session, Mrs. Tom Harvey and Mrs. Hurt gave two chapters from the Bible study, "Disciples to Such a Lord". The meeting was closed with a worship service by Miss Mattie Ezell, who used the painting of the rich young ruler as the worship center.

Mrs. Greer will be hostess to the June meeting and Mrs. Hurt will lead the lesson study.

Mrs. Blankenship Initiated Into Club

Past Noble Grands Club of the Rebekahs met with Mrs. Loren Atterbury, 32nd and Kentucky, Friday, May 9, with Mrs. Frank Paulus as assisting hostess. A luncheon was served at the noon hour to 17 members, three guests, Mrs. E. Ellison, Mrs. O. C. Roberson, Mrs. Permelia Eirls. The president, Mrs. Atterbury, presided over the meeting which was opened with a song. The scripture reading was given by Mrs. Mary Edwards and the Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison. Get-well cards and fruit were sent to the shut-ins of the club.

Mrs. C. O. Blankenship was initiated and became a new member of the club.

The June meeting will be held with Mrs. Perry Reed, LaMonte.

Fluoridation Meets Violent Opposition

OGDEN, Utah (AP) — Four city councilmen have discovered that supporting fluoridation of the community's water supply can be as uncomfortable as aching teeth.

Fluoridation has run into some strong opposition here, and it could be violent opposition.

The County Welfare Council announced yesterday the four councilmen have been threatened by physical violence or business boycotts by numerous anonymous callers.

Mayor Raymond S. Wright and Councilmen C. Austin Seager, Elmer Myers and Scott B. Price voted to set up a fluoridation plant. The other three Council members voted against it.

The city is going ahead with plans to buy the equipment though an initiative petition against fluoridation is to be voted upon in November 1959.

Pays To Advertise

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — If you notice an American's automobile abroad it will probably carry a Virginia license tag.

Chester Lamb, Virginia motor vehicle commissioner, says "Happy we are getting such good advertising."

Most states issue tags only if the owner applies in person. A few will issue plates by mail after the applicant has proven legal residence in the state. But just send in the fee and Virginia will mail you the tag. And many are sold to service men and to employees of American firms in foreign countries.

J. J. McGrath, Savings Bonds chairman for Pettis County, today released the April U. S. Savings Bonds sales figures of $100,950, which makes a total for the year of $398,321, or 42.8 per cent of the 1958 quota.

Arthur K. Atkinson, Missouri Savings Bonds State Chairman also released bond sales figures for the state of $14,490,020 for April, making a total so far this year of $57,384,111, or 39.2 per cent of the 1958 quota.

Assistant Chief, Woman Companion Charged in Burglary

CRESTVIEW, Fla. — The assistant police chief of Crestview and a woman companion are charged with burglarizing a store.

Formal charges of breaking and entering were filed against Asst. Chief John W. Dreading, 42, and Mrs. Kay Arne, 33, a divorcee with three children. They were held for the grand jury in bond of $1,500 each.

The two were charged with breaking into the store yesterday and hauling off food, clothes and other items valued at more than $200.

Sheriff Ray Wilson said Dreading admitted the theft. He quoted Mrs. Arne as saying that Dreading, who is separated from his wife, was worried about providing for Mrs. Arne and her children.

Banker Claims Long Payments Makes Recession

KANSAS CITY, Kan. — Joseph C. Welman, president of the American Bankers Assn. and of the Bank of Kennett, Mo., says "nothing down and 36 months to pay" is to blame for the recession.

Overproduction coupled with installment buying, particularly of automobiles, brought about unemployment, he declared. He predicted a great era of economic expansion is ahead "if we do not go off the deep end by creating a huge deficit."

Welman came to Kansas City for the annual convention of the Kansas Bankers Assn. Wednesday night. He has been on a tour of such meetings, visiting 14 states in the past 30 days.

"Certainly there is no recession in Houston or Oklahoma City, where I recently visited," he said, "but the country is recession-minded. It has talked itself into the idea the recession is widespread and not isolated in certain sectors, which it most certainly is."

"Everywhere I go, people ask me about the recession in other places. I believe it is isolated in industrial regions."

He said he is not in favor of a tax cut or government price controls.

Welman said cotton crop conditions in southeast Missouri, his home area, are becoming critical because too much rain has prevented planting.

"People down there were never in favor of the soil bank plan until now," he said. "But the main problem in cotton is the loss of foreign markets and the competition of synthetic products."

"Larger acreage and a lower support price would be helpful in competing with synthetics and regaining and holding our foreign markets."

Gang Member's Wife Sought for Concealing Stolen Bank Property

KANSAS CITY — U. S. Commissioner Edward R. Delich issued a fugitive warrant Wednesday against Linda Young, 17, accusing her of receiving and concealing property stolen from a bank at Arma, Kan.

She was identified as the wife of Dolan Allen Young, 21, who surrendered earlier and is charged with robbing the bank on May 1.

Young is a member of a gang rounded up since officers found $14,000 hidden at a house at Overland Park, Kan., last Saturday. Some of those in custody also have been charged with robbing a bank at Hume, Mo.

SENIOR AWARD — Garnett Walters, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Walters of Sedalia, has been awarded the senior award in mathematics in recognition of highest scholastic achievement for the 1957-58 school year. This award was presented at the Kappa Mu Epsilon annual spring banquet by the Missouri Beta Chapter of Kappa Mu Epsilon, honorary mathematical fraternity, at Central Missouri State College, Warrensburg. He is graduating this spring from CMSC with a Bachelor of Science in Education degree, majoring in mathematics. Next fall he will be employed as an instructor of mathematics at the Missouri School of Mines in Rolla. Garnett was graduated from Smith-Cotton High School with the class of 1955.

Civil War Veteran Celebrates Birthday

SLANT, Va. — "Gen." John Salling receives birthday greetings today from well-wishers on both sides of the Mason-Dixon Line.

Four members of Congress were included in a delegation which planned a 100-car motorcade to this tiny southwest Virginia community to spend part of the day with Salling on his 112th birthday anniversary.

Salling—the "general" is purely honorary—is one of the two remaining veterans of the Civil War. The other, also a Confederate, is 116-year-old Walter W. Williams of Houston.

Scheduled to be on hand for the festivities were Reps. Smith (R-Kan.), Fred Schwengel (R-Iowa), W. Pat Jennings (D-Va.) and Sen. A. Willis Robertson (D-Va.).

In addition to the congressmen, the motorcade includes representatives of the armed forces, veterans groups and just plain citizens.

Salling, now confined to a wheel chair but still peppery, was expected to greet his guests in his new summerweight Confederate uniform, presented several weeks ago by members of the Woman's Army Corps at Ft. Myer, Va.

Post Office Wins Safety Presentation

Postmaster General Arthur B. Summerfield said today he has been advised that the Post Office Department has again — for the fourth consecutive year — been given the National Safety Council's citation award "for outstanding contributions" to the nation's traffic safety in 1957.

The Safety Council, in a telegram from Mr. G. C. Stewart, its Executive Vice President, has just notified the Department that it is one of twelve organizations over the nation winning the coveted safety honor in 1957.

The Department was informed that this is the first time any organization has won the award four times in a row. Formal presentation ceremonies for the award have not yet been scheduled, and will be announced later.

The Post Office Department's comprehensive safety and traffic accident program was initiated in 1954. Some of the achievements in 1957 which won recognition of the Safety Council, in making this newest presentation, were as follows:

1. An excellent accident and casualty rate in 884,069,485 miles driven in 1957 by postal vehicles, with a total of 18,813 accidents, or 2.13 accidents for every 100,000 miles driven, with a casualty rate of .06 for each 100,000 miles.

2. Traffic safety promotion in 37,000 postal field installations in every major community in the nation.

3. During 1957, 37,500 postal drivers earned individual National Safety Council Safe Driver Awards for one to 27 years of safe driving.

Attend Banquet At Marshall High School

The 12-week course of instruction sponsored by the L. P. Gas dealers of central Missouri closed recently with a five course banquet held at Marshall High School. The class was composed of employees of L. P. Gas companies from seven communities. Diplomas were awarded by Supt. Becker, Marshall, and the class was taught by J. D. Nichols.

Following the dinner a film on electricity was shown. Attending from Ottumwa were Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Bixler, manager of the L. P. Gas Station, Ottumwa, Mr. and Mrs. Durward Goode, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Seifert, Miss Doris Talley and Douglas Eckerle.

GRADUATE — Scheduled to graduate from the U.S. Naval Academy June 4 is Midshipman First Class Kerry F. Gentry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Gentry, 1725 South Carr. Gentry will be commissioned an Ensign in the U.S. Navy after receiving his bachelor of science degree, and expects to report to Long Beach, Calif., for his first duty. A graduate of Smith-Cotton High School, Midn. Gentry entered the academy on a Congressional appointment.

TODAY'S BEST BUY-TOMORROW'S BEST TRADE

You get more wagon for your money today...more money for your wagon tomorrow!

Any way you look at it, you can't find a better wagon buy than Plymouth! So big—it carries more, does more, provides more room for family fun. So beautiful—just look at those long, years-ahead lines. So economical—Plymouth is priced right in the low-price "3", yet you can't buy a bigger wagon at any price. And further proof: Plymouth beat every car in the low-price class in the 1958 Mobilgas Economy Run; Plymouth's second consecutive victory!

Get the biggest wagonload of value at a price far lower than you would expect. See your Plymouth dealer today.

FIVE BIG REASONS WHY YOUR NEXT WAGON SHOULD BE A PLYMOUTH

1. Biggest of the low-price "3". Big as wagons costing thousands of dollars more. You can't buy a bigger wagon at any price!
2. Holds so much more than the "other two". Over 7 cu. ft. extra passenger and cargo space. Optional "secret" luggage compartment available in 6-passenger models.
3. Rear-facing 3rd seat. Folds flush into floor. You don't store it outside when it's not in use. Easy to enter, has convenient back step.
4. Disappearing rear window. Rolls down into the one-piece tailgate. Doesn't jut out and get in the way. Only on Plymouth wagons in the low-price "3".
5. Torsion-Aire Ride at no extra cost. Only Plymouth has it in the low-price "3". Big-car luxury. No side-sway on turns...no nose-dive on stops.

City Takes Added Step Toward Permanent Recreation Plan

Another step toward the forming of a permanent organization to further the proposed city-wide recreation was taken Wednesday night when more than 100 representatives of 49 organizations met at the City Hall to discuss the plan.

The group elected a committee of nine to investigate and lay the groundwork for the proposed permanent recreational city-wide program. The representatives elected George Ray, the Rev. Edward Sims, Lloyd Gardner, Cline Cain, Cecil Owen, Jake Kraus, W. A. Spraggins, Mrs. Price Alexander and Wilson Foster.

Following the meeting, the committee met and chose May 26 for its first meeting, when officers will be elected.

Although letters went to 105 civic, religious, clubs, Parent-Teachers groups, labor organizations, patriotic and veterans organizations, and others, the attendance Wednesday night was considered excellent. Although 49 organizations answered the roll call, it was later learned some of the representatives also were representing one and two other groups.

One of the questions asked was whether this program would conflict with that of Mayor Abe Silberman, and the representatives assured them it would not. In fact, it is in line with the thinking of the mayor and other city officials, it was stated.

It was brought out a permanent recreational program would have to be financially supported and this could be done through a two-mill tax. It was also pointed out the tax is approved for third class cities by the State of Missouri, but would be voted by the people.

Various other phases of the program were discussed.

Coach Ralph "Stub" Dow of Smith-Cotton High School said that in seeking his master's degree at the University of Colorado he made a thorough study on recreational programs, using Sedalia as his subject.

During this study and survey, it was necessary for him to make contacts with many cities and towns regarding a recreational program. He commended Sedalia's plan to start small and grow big.

He pointed out the various activities, how to contact the public and determine what it desired in recreation for both youngsters and adults.

"You have to know what the people want. You have to know what facilities you have at your disposal, and you have to know if the people would object to using the school facilities, the parks and such."

"I am vitally interested in this recreational program," Dow said. "The youth of today are not getting enough activity. Youth must have this activity to build their bodies, and building their bodies is necessary to maintain their brains."

"You can't build bodies, make brains sharp after you have reached maturity. This must be done when the boy and girl is growing up especially between the ages of eight to 18," Dow said. "This can only be done with proper leadership. Juvenile delinquency will decrease if we have the proper leadership."

Coach Dow concluded his talk by stating he would be happy to cooperate, and offered his experience and survey to the group.

Leaves Green Prints In Garage Burglary

HILLSBORO, Ore. (AP) — After several thefts at his garage, R. I. Williams decided to give police a hand.

On a ledge over a window through which burglars had entered, Williams put a gallon jug filled with green dye.

Over the window he put a metal sign. He tied one end of a wire to the sign. The other end was tied to the trigger of a shotgun pointed at the jug.

Early Wednesday a burglar knocked aside the sign. Williams' device worked swell. The gun went off, the shot broke the jug and down came the dye.

The burglar was persistent. He roamed through the garage, took three cartons of cigarettes and walked away, leaving a string of green footprints.

Organs May Be Made to Obey Various Signals

By RENNIE TAYLOR
Associated Press Science Reporter

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A Russian medical scientist says the vital organs of human beings can be made to obey visual or sound signals or other communications from the outside.

Glands can be speeded up or slowed down; hearts can be kept from beating too fast under excitement; stomachs and intestines can be given diseases by signals and then can be cured the same way, he asserts.

This concept opens up a great new field in psychosomatic medicine.

In fact, he went on, humans and higher animals probably do all their functioning through a complicated signal system of this kind. If anything goes wrong with it, the result may be mental illness.

Under this line of reasoning the formula for healthy existence would be to keep the signal system in good working order and to modify it here and there so it would maintain all the body's processes in balance.

The statements came from Prof. Constantine Bykov, director of the famed Pavlov Institute near Leningrad. He talked Wednesday at a news conference at the American Psychiatric Assn. meeting through

Pineapple King Dies Wednesday Of Heart Attack

HONOLULU (AP) — James Drummond Dole, 80, founder of Hawaii's 116-million-dollar pineapple industry, died yesterday about five hours after suffering a heart attack at his Honolulu home.

Born in Boston, Mass., the son of a Unitarian clergyman came to Hawaii in 1899 when he was 22.

He started growing pineapples for canning in rural Oahu and organized the Hawaiian Pineapple Co. in 1901 with 16 employees. The firm now has about 3,300 year-around workers and up to 7,800 in the packing season.

In 1908 the infant Hawaiian pineapple industry began what may have been the first campaign by any industry to advertise its products without regard to brand name. Under Dole's leadership, the firms launched an advertising campaign under the slogan "Don't ask for pineapple alone. Insist on Hawaiian pineapple."

The campaign sold pineapples piled up by the panic of 1907 and was considered the turning point in the industry's history.

In 1927 Dole offered $25,000 to the first aviator to fly to Hawaii from the U.S. West Coast. Two planes reached Hawaii safely but seven persons were lost on other flights.

Dole is survived by his wife, three sons, two daughters and 12 grandchildren.

Two Russian-speaking American physicians, Dr. W. Hoesley Gantt of Baltimore and Dr. Iago Galston of New York.

Prof. Bykov's work is an outgrowth of the discovery more than half a century ago by Ivan Pavlov that a dog could be made to drool at the sound of a bell.

Zsa Zsa Says She Will Sue Congressman

WASHINGTON (AP)—Zsa Zsa Gabor says she'll sue Rep. Wayne Hays (D-Ohio) for slander if he repeats outside of Congress his remark that she "apparently is the most expensive courtesan since Madame De Pompadour."

Hays made the remark Wednesday during House debate on the foreign aid bill. He was referring to expensive gifts given Miss Gabor by Lt. Gen. Rafael Trujillo Jr., son of the Dominican Republic's strong man.

Speaking through a public relations firm, Miss Gabor a few hours later challenged Hays "to come out from behind the congressional walls of immunity and repeat his statement about me."

"I will sue him for his slanderous statements," she said. Miss Gabor is here to fill a night club engagement.

There was no immediate comment from Hays.

The 29-year-old Trujillo, who is married and has six children, has given Miss Gabor a $17,000 chinchilla coat and a car. Trujillo, in this country as a military student, also has given a car to actress Kim Novak.

During the House debate, Hays tried to cut off aid to the Dominican Republic, but his amendment was defeated 79-32.

Hays quoted a telegram from the Dominican ambassador as saying young Trujillo is paying his expenses out of a $50,000 monthly allowance from his father. The ambassador entered his protest against congressional discussion of Trujillo's private affairs.

Noting that the aid bill carries $600,000 for the Dominican Republic, Hays said that just equals the young general's allowance for a year.

"If he continues fooling around Zsa Zsa Gabor, who apparently is the most expensive courtesan since Madame De Pompadour, the old man will have to raise the ante," Hays told the House, which greeted his remarks with laughter.

Madame De Pompadour was mistress to King Louis XV of France.

Graham Calls For More Love And Less Lust

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham called for less lust and more love last night before 14,900 in the 16-300 seat Cow Palace.

"Sensual love is lust," he said. "God gave sex for four reasons: to love properly, to set up a home, bring children and supply creative energy."

Graham, in his third week of his six-week San Francisco crusade, told a news conference this was the fourth time in his career that he has discussed sex from the pulpit.

He called it a delicate subject but added it was high time that ministers spoke out. "Everybody else is speaking on it," he said.

"Every phase of life is invaded by sex. . . . The sex revolution is changing our society faster than any other revolution," he told the audience. He said salesman of immoral literature do more to ruin the nation than communism.

He declared "no age has ever emphasized sex more and enjoyed it less."

Graham said immorality could be committed by thought, seeing, speaking, dressing and consuming improper literature.

"Don't dilly-dally with thought, thinking that you can avoid the act," he said. "It won't work. You can expel one desire only by a higher desire. With Christ, sin shall not rule your life."

There were 312 "decisions for Christ" at the meeting.

Optimists Welcome Sharp Into Club

The regular weekly luncheon meeting of the Sedalia Optimist Club was held Tuesday at the Hotel Bothwell. In the absence of President Claude Boul, Vice President Gerald Cecil presided. New member Merlin Tharp was inducted into the club.

David Fink, Westinghouse Corp. representative from Kansas City, presented a film showing the research into atomic energy for peaceful applications and civilian activities. The speaker was introduced by Optimist Dr. K. L. Holden, program chairman for the month.

Invocation was by Judge Dimmitt Hoffman. Singing was led by Optimist Charles Hanna, with Lillian Fox as accompanist.

Yard of Month Judging Moved Up

The Yard of the Month contest, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce with the cooperation of the Sedalia Garden Clubs, will be judged earlier this month than previously planned. Consequently, the judging committee is asking that names of eligible yards be entered by the owners or by anyone who notices an eligible yard within the next few days.

Precipitation Forecast For Most of Missouri

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Much of Missouri is in the path of precipitation.

Occasional showers and thunderstorms are forecast, mostly for the west and north, and locally heavy showers are predicted for the southwest and east central sections this afternoon and tonight.

There won't be much change in temperatures.

The mercury stayed generally around the mid-80 mark in the state Wednesday, but Jefferson City had 89. It was the highest ever recorded for May 14 in the 40 years records have been kept there.

Mrs. Biggs Holliday New MFWC President

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Mrs. Biggs Holliday of Louisiana is the new president of the Missouri Federation of Women's Clubs.

Also elected yesterday, the second day of the three-day convention, were:

Vice presidents, Mrs. Gustav Goetsch, Glendale; Mrs. Robert Matthews, Canton; and Mrs. David Bilyea, Louisiana.

Recording secretary, Mrs. Raymond Gepford, Kansas City; treasurer, Mrs. Morre Doreign Jr., Cape Girardeau; corresponding secretary, Mrs. William Tandy, Rolla.

All officers will serve two years.

Warsaw Music Students To Present Operetta

Mississippi Melody, an operetta by Charles Geodey, will be presented by the Warsaw High School music department Thursday night, May 15, in the Community Building. Bill Jesse will be director of the musical performance, which is based on Mark Twain's well-known characters, Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn. Miss Marjorie Laird will be accompanist.

Finds Himself In Jail For Own Safety

LIBERTY, Mo. (AP)—James Ira Caverty is glad to find out he's being held in jail only for his own safety.

"I was getting worried," he said.

Caverty is credited with breaking up a car theft ring which operated in six northwest Missouri counties. At least seven persons have been arrested. Warrants are out for two others. And Caverty still is in jail.

"He deserves a medal for his help rather than being made to appear a suspected criminal," said Chief Ben Griffin of the Cameron, Mo., police department. Chief Griffin and Sheriff Leland Houghton of Daviess County came to Liberty to arrange for Caverty's release. They said he is held only for his own safety and probably will be released soon.

Caverty is 50 and his home is at Gilman City, Mo.

He hit Cameron April 6 looking for a job, hungry, and with no place to stay. Chief Griffin gave him a night's lodging in jail and sent him off the next morning to Hamilton, Mo., where he knew some road work was under way.

Caverty was back in Cameron in a few days. He'd received similar lodging in the Hamilton jail, he reported, and a night watchman had propositioned him about helping to dispose of a stolen car.

Chief Griffin sent Caverty back to Hamilton again to see if he could learn more.

Caverty hitchhiked the 13 miles to Cameron again on April 26 and reported this time he was in a position to deliver a stolen car to the chief.

The plot was set and sure enough Caverty called in at 9 p. m. to report he had the car near Lawson, Mo., and come quick because two members of the gang were following him.

Chief Griffin and Troopers Walter Bryan and Lawrence Jefferson of the Missouri Highway Patrol sped to the rendezvous.

To protect Caverty, they charged him with using an automobile without the owner's permission and put him in jail at Liberty. They hoped the ruse might help them find the two ringleaders.

The fugitives are Joe Evans, Hamilton night watchman, and Tommy Thompson of DeKalb County.

Caverty's home near Bethany, Mo., burned last October and two of his five children perished. He was in Kansas City at the time looking for a job.

'Flying Jenny' Reenacts First Air Mail Run

WASHINGTON (AP)—An authentic 1918 "Flying Jenny" reenacts the first U.S. air mail service in this country.

Leon D. ("Windy") Smith, who says only he is "over 60," was called back to an old, familiar job in manning the controls of the "Jenny" for a memorial flight from Washington to Philadelphia to New York City.

Smith was one of the original pilots when the Post Office Department established the first airborne postal deliveries between these cities on May 15, 1918. He now operates a private flying service and aviation training school at Pine City, N.Y.

In a talk prepared for take-off ceremonies at Washington National Airport, Deputy Postmaster General Edson O. Sessions recalled the first airmail takeoff was from the old Polo Grounds near Washington Monument.

"There, perhaps more than at any other place," he said, "America's great commercial aviation industry was born, because air mail demonstrated the practical feasibility of the flimsy airplane of that era for commercial use."

Letters from Postmaster General Summerfield to the postmasters at Philadelphia and New York were assigned to the special flight, along with a load of specially marked letters sent in by philatelists and destined to become collectors' items.

The memorial flight and the observances in many other cities are being sponsored by Air Mail Pioneers, Inc. made up of early air mail service employees.

Vandekamp Re-elected Park Board President

The Sedalia Park Board re-elected John Vandekamp president at its organizational meeting Tuesday night.

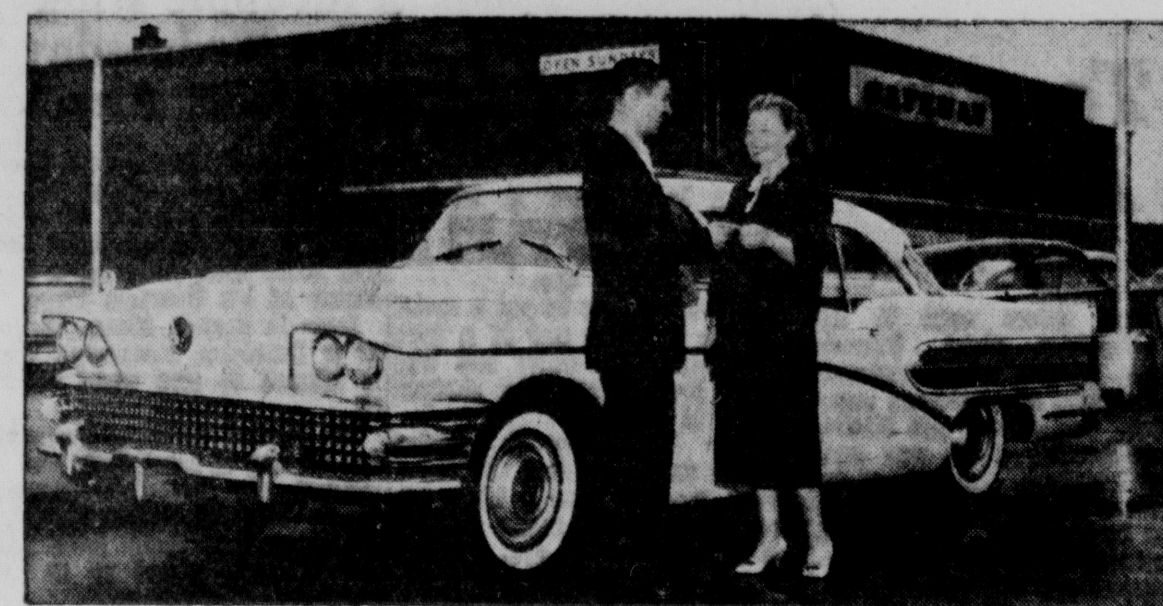

Elmer Lane was chosen vice-president and Aaron Haller secretary. The other two board members are George Espelin and Leroy Luchs.

Square Dance Club To Dance at Warsaw

Benton County Square Dance Association will dance Friday, May 16, at the Warsaw Community Hall at 8 p. m. Harold Hurd, Carrollton, will be the caller.

WINNER—Happy winner of Safeway's Skylark Bread Contest which ends May 17 is Mrs. Claude Ware of Mission, Kan., shown here receiving the keys to a 1938 Buick Riviera Hardtop convertible. William Bellman, Safeway manager in Mission, is making the presentation. Mrs. Ware is one of the national winners in the contest sponsored by Safeway. "First time I ever won anything," was Mrs. Ware's comment upon being told of her prize. Offered her choice of models and colors, Mrs. Ware's selection was the convertible in Mojave yellow with a black top.

MERIT AWARD — The Missouri State Chamber of Commerce was the recipient of the U.S. Chamber's 1937 merit award for outstanding contributions to better economic understanding. It was announced at the recent annual meeting of the national organization in Washington. In the accompanying photograph State Chamber President W. A. Mann (left) is shown accepting the award from Phillip M. Talbot, out-going U.S. Chamber president. Officials said the Missouri organization was the only state chamber of commerce to receive such recognition for economic understanding activities in the 1937 U. S. Chamber competition. The award was based on the Missouri Chamber's annual Missouriiana Studytour for teachers, cosponsored by Central Missouri State College, and a 13-week radio program series early last year explaining the activities of the state legislature.

Accidents

A parked car of Arnold C. Schultz, 500 East 14th, was damaged Wednesday morning when struck by a 1937 pickup truck driven by Ronald Hughes, 1314 East Tenth.

Highway Patrolman Robert Hightower, who was born and reared in Marshall, suffered Monday evening the loss of the big toe on his left foot in a power mower accident at his home in Lexington.

Trooper Hightower was cutting the grass on the lawn at his home. The grass was damp and Trooper Hightower's foot slipped and his toe so severely cut by the mower's blade that it had to be amputated at the hospital in Lexington.

Following the amputation, Trooper Hightower was dismissed from the hospital, but has been suffering much pain from his injury. Mrs. Lon Thomas of Marshall, mother of Mrs. Hightower, reported this morning.

The injury will necessitate Patrolman Hightower being off duty for several weeks. The former Marshall resident has charge of a radar car for the state patrol. Prior to that he gave driver license examinations in this part of the state and visited Marshall twice weekly.

Tipton B&J Cafe Burned Wednesday

In a fire of undetermined origin Wednesday night at Tipton the B and J cafe in the business center of that town was burned out and the building it occupied owned by D. C. Hardy was considerably damaged.

The blaze was discovered by Mrs. Marvin Watring, occupying an upstairs apartment and the Tipton Fire department, with Vincent (Skipper) Hecht, chief, and its members had the new fire truck in service as well as one that had been in use several years, augmented by the rural fire truck.

The fire fighting forces had the blaze which started about 10:30 p. m., under control in about a half hour's time and prevented its spread to adjacent buildings, although smoke filled them for a time.

The cafe was operated by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Talbott, Versailles. Loss was unofficially estimated at between $7,000 and $10,000.

Armed Forces Banquet To Exceed '37 Affair

The Armed Forces second annual banquet at the Smith-Cotton High School Friday night promises to exceed the 1937 "kick-off" dinner for Armed Forces Day. It was 1937 when Sedalia was quoted as having one of the largest, if not the largest Armed Forces dinner-meetings in the country.

Maj. Gen. Robert Landry, Washington, D.C., of the United States Air Force, will be the principal speaker at the dinner this year. The general is to be introduced by United States Senator Stuart Symington, a close friend of the general.

A few tickets are still available at the Chamber of Commerce office. Today 594 tickets had been reported sold, leaving 26 left before a capacity crowd is reached.

Wholesale Food Index Turns Up

NEW YORK, May 14 (AP)—Wholesale food prices, as measured by the Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., index, turned up this week after a four-week decline.

At $6.62 the index was 5 cents higher than a week ago and up 8.9 per cent from the year-ago week's $6.08. The year's high was $6.74 in the week ended April 18.

The index represents the total cost at wholesale of one pound sack of 31 foods in general use.

Teenagers Believe Year-Round School Ideas Should Be Junked

By Eugene Gilbert
President of Gilbert Youth Research Co.

The Massachusetts high school miss wrinkled her nose in disgust. "What a ghastly idea," she said. She had just been asked, "Do you think school should continue all year around?"

Obviously she did not. And her feelings were shared by four out of every five high school youngsters questioned.

Some school districts in the United States have talked about, or experimented with, 12 months of school. The idea is to reduce overcrowding.

Theory is the schools operate a full 12 months with the students required to attend nine months on a staggered schedule. This means some must attend during the summer. Those who wish may attend the full year.

Our interviewers asked more than 600 teen-agers throughout the said, "We'd be out of school and free to get married sooner."

The high school crowd was well agreed that summer time is a time for relaxation.

We asked, "Do you think a summer vacation relaxes one and helps him do his best work when he returns to school in the fall?" Four out of 5 of the boys (80 per cent) said yes while 84 per cent of the girls gave the same answer.

Six out of every ten students said grades are not as good in summer school as they are during fall and winter sessions. "Only those who need to catch up on their courses or have flunked a course go to summer school," said William Cue of Babylon, Long Island.

They Like School, But
More than half of the youngsters—65 per cent of the boys and 58 per cent of the girls—thought their parents would like for them to attend school all year.

Almost 90 per cent felt school all year round would provide teachers a better income, although most of them (61 per cent) did not know how their teachers feel about it. The remaining 40 per cent were divided almost equally between those believing teachers like summer school and those feeling they dislike it.

One student said, "Summer is an opportunity for a teacher to travel and one of the exciting parts of the job of traveling and doing as one sees fit."

Happily, most of the youngsters said they like school. Eighty per cent were for it while only 20 per cent said they dislike it.

There are many conclusions to be drawn from this study, the primary one being that the students themselves prefer to keep their easy pace.

However, with the bumper crop of children of the mid-1940s due to reach high school within the next few years, there will be a corresponding increase in crowding. It might be that a 12-month school program will be the only economical solution.

But it would be difficult to convince Tommy Lerna of Dallas. Tommy told our interviewers: "Never, never, never could they get me to school for 12 months a year."

Government Buying Jets for Officials

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government is buying three jet transports costing five million dollars each to be used by President Eisenhower and other high ranking officials on long distance trips.

The planes, four-jet Boeing 707s, may be delivered by the end of this year. The 707, now being produced for commercial use, has a top speed of 500-600 miles an hour and is capable of stratospheric flight.

Eisenhower's approval of the purchase order was announced Wednesday by White House press

Two Women Arrested In School Riot

Two patrons in the Maple Grove school district, east of Windsor, Mrs. Henry Taylor and Mrs. Raymond Truel, were arrested Monday on charges of assaulting the teacher, Mrs. Richard Calkin. They were released on $200 bond pending their hearing in Sedalia.

The alleged assault was said to have followed disciplinary action taken by the teacher against pupils in the school. Some of the patrons who objected to the teacher spanking the pupils went to the school house and remonstrated with the teacher.

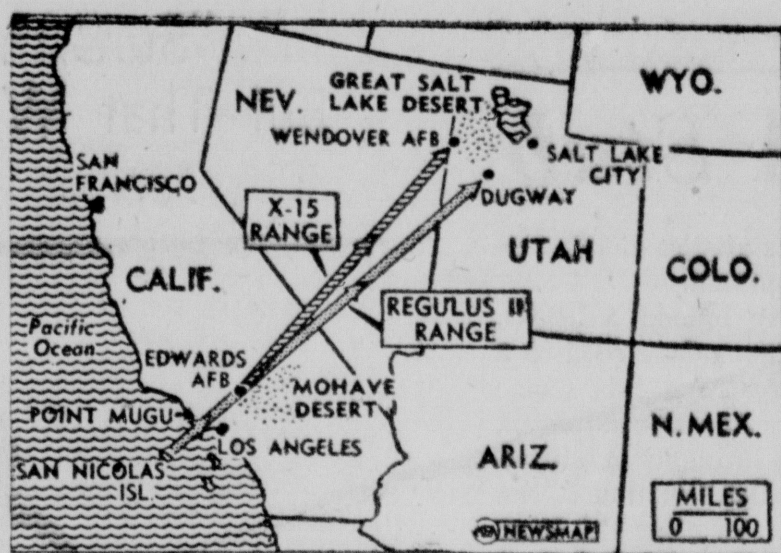

The Board of Education for the school received the complaint of the incident and appointed Paul Gregory, board president, and Eugene Johnston to confer with Prosecuting Attorney Harold Barwick. The assault charges resulted.

Another disturbance was created at the school Monday when Richard Calkin, husband of the teacher, was taken into custody by Marshal O. W. Lewis and Albert Stiles, special police officer and secretary of the board for the school. Calkin had taken a shotgun to the school and his wife had kept the pupils in the school at noon and telephoned Stiles for assistance.

Calkin was brought to the city jail and then turned over to Deputy Sheriff Ed George of Sedalia to be taken to the Pettis County jail. Calkin was back in Windsor a few hours later without charges being filed against him. Prosecuting Attorney Harold Barwick of Sedalia stated yesterday he ordered the man's release when no one appeared to file charges.

Stiles reported Calkin claimed he went to the school grounds with the gun to protect his wife in case patrons bothered her. He later made threats against his wife for calling for help, Stiles stated.

secretary James C. Hagerty, who said the planes would be available for use by the President or other top government officials on cross country or intercontinental flights. Hagerty said none of the three-speed jets would be assigned to Eisenhower alone. He said the President would continue to use his personal plane, the propeller-driven Columbine III, on many trips.

MISSILE ALLEY—Both the Air Force and Navy have announced plans to set up inland ranges from California to Utah for the testing of advanced aircraft, manned and unmanned. The Air Force rocket ship X-15, which will take a man into space next year, is expected to soar a hundred miles high at speeds of thousands of miles an hour in its journey over the sparsely settled land between Edwards and Wendover Air Force Bases (see Newsmag). The Navy range will be used to test the guidance system of the supersonic Regulus II jet missile. Initial tests will be from Edwards AFB to the Army proving grounds at Dugway. Later firings will take place from Point Mugu and from ships in the San Nicolas area. The full range, about 500 miles long, will be ready for use in August.

Why The Rush?

"School 12 months a year?" asked 16-year-old Sally Zara of Porties, N. M. "Why we'd never have a chance to get unbound."

"The Army gets us soon enough anyway," said a Duluth boy.

"What are they trying to rush us for?" asked Elliot Thompson, 16, of Philadelphia. "We will be in college and then working for the rest of our lives. What's the big hurry?"

And yet, the minority had some answers for the majority.

"There is no reason for us to go to school less time than we will be working on a job in the future," said Sandra Stillerman of Chicago. "We might as well get used to a two-week vacation instead of a three-month one."

A serious-minded senior said: "It's a worthwhile system. This way the student doesn't have to readjust each fall. Shorter vacations spaced throughout the year would keep the student's mind alert and attuned to his studies instead of breaking off in June and starting from scratch in September."

A romantic-minded teen-ager had something else in mind. "Oh!" she

Don't Draw Back A Stub

Urging care, for safety's sake, in the manner in which a power mower is operated seems like a futile gesture in light of reports of the season's first lawn-cutting accidents.

For instance consider the Kansas City man who went to a hospital to have two fingers sewed after a mower blade clipped them. Patched up, he returned home to complete his mowing job. An hour later he was back in the hospital, this time with a chipped toe. Someone else finished cutting his lawn.

Popularity of power mowers has increased tremendously within the past five years. The male urge to buy one is irresistible; and how the children and grand children beg to push this lethal weapon across the family lawn!

A man will spend hours reading up on mechanical instructions how to operate the machine, to keep it in good running order, how to take it apart and put it back together again. But written rules on safety are ignored; shucks any fool can run a power mower without getting hurt. But statistics don't support such positive opinion.

Power mowers are indeed a utility. However handling them does require a bit of judgment. Preaching this seems only to make a mower operator stubborn, so perhaps mother's influence might be brought to bear on the situation if she will tell the old man to clear the lawn of stones, wire and other debris before mowing; not to work on the mower, adjust it or remove foreign matter, unless the motor is stopped; to be sure small children and pets are well out of the range of the blades and flying pebbles; to be careful of footing and balance on inclines; not to smoke while gassing the tank or while the latter is hot; to turn the motor off when the mower is unattended. And watch that foot you use to brace the mower's base when pulling the starter cord. One slip and your foot is gone.

Safety rules for power mowers! There they are. But who'll pay any attention? Many, we hope, who prefer not to draw back a stub.

Russia Fails To Launch Space Man

(Editor's Note—Drew Pearson is now reporting on what progress Moscow may have made among our NATO allies. While he is abroad the Washington end of the column is written by his associate, Jack Anderson.)

By JACK ANDERSON

WASHINGTON—Soviet dictator Nikita Khrushchev is driving his scientists to launch a man in space and to shoot a rocket to the moon as propaganda stunts to convince the world that Russia is still ahead in the great space race.

This is the conclusion of our technological spies whose electronic devices have long out-dated the cloak-and-dagger technique for finding out what's going on behind the Iron Curtain.

Their modern methods have produced technological evidence (1) that Russia has already failed in two attempts to hurl a man into space in the nose cone of a giant missile; and (2) that as recently as the third week of last month the Soviets also failed to launch a moon rocket.

They successfully fired two more intercontinental missiles, however, during the past few weeks. These soared over Siberia from the Caspian Sea to the Kamchatka peninsula. Our high-powered radar tracked the streaking nose cones which re-entered the earth's atmosphere without burning up, then either smashed into the peninsula or plunged into the Bering Sea less than 1,500 miles from Alaska.

August Moon Shots

Our technical experts expect Russia to try again soon to wow the world with something more spectacular than a simple Sputnik. They believe Khrushchev would like to shoot a man into orbit, then bring him back alive in a sealed capsule parachuted from outer space. No doubt Khrushchev also intends to beat the United States to the moon with the first rocket.

Our first moon missiles won't be ready until August when both the Army and Air Force will attempt to shoot small, camera-carrying satellites around the moon. The launchings will be scheduled at a time when the moon is between the earth and the sun. Then the sun will illuminate the back side of the moon which our scientists hope to photograph.

The Air Force hopes to boomerang the moon in September and October with more complex satellites. The October shot may even carry a television camera if present plans work out. Meanwhile, special observation stations will be built in Hawaii and England for the moon shots.

The year 1958 may go down in history as another 1492.

bomb against air strips. An air explosion might not even damage a runway, whereas a ground explosion would leave a mammoth crater.

How "Clean" Is Bomb

Meanwhile, Strauss is so determined to prove that he has developed a near pure H-bomb that he will permit foreign observers to operate the actual instruments which register the fall-out from this summer's test.

To demonstrate his "clean" bomb, Strauss plans to set off a hydrogen explosion of five megatons (equivalent to 5,000,000 tons of TNT). It takes the intense heat of a small atomic explosion to trigger a larger hydrogen explosion. The trigger bomb spreads the radioactive particles which Strauss' scientists have now reduced to five or six per cent of the total fall-out.

All this will be explained in a pamphlet which Strauss is now preparing for the foreign observers. What the pamphlet won't mention, however, is that the hydrogen explosion may charge the surrounding elements with radioactivity which will be just as dangerous as the particles from the trigger bomb.

The neutrons released by the hydrogen explosion will probably activate other elements and cause "induced" radioactivity. The resulting fall-out may be just as contaminated as that spread by "dirty" bombs. It all depends upon where the bomb is exploded and what elements are activated.

Thus Strauss' ballyhoo about a "clean" bomb may backfire unless he tells the full truth about it before he shows it off to foreign experts.

Oops Department

After investigating a report in this column that the late Senator Welker's relatives were practicing nepotism in his department, Secretary of the Interior Fred Seaton reports back that the column must have mixed up some family trees.

Seaton says that Edward Woolzley, boss of the land management bureau, came from Welker's home state, Idaho, but was never related to him in any way. Ernest Palmer, whom Woolzley gave a job in California, also is not his brother-in-law. Woolzley's wife is a Palmer, but belongs to a different family altogether.

The only relative Woolzley has working under him is Ray Deschamps, a career employee, now assigned to Billings, Mont. This column apologizes to all concerned.

Henry Hazlitt stated in NEWSWEEK: "The worst of all remedies for the recession is that proposed by Walter Reuther and the AFL-CIO. It is a further increase in wage rates 'to increase purchasing power' . . . But a further increase above the present peak wage rates would simply increase the cost of production; squeeze out more profits . . . price more goods and labor out of the market; increase unemployment still more; reduce pay rolls; reduce labor's total income; and turn recession into a real depression."

Apparent Misjudgment Embarrasses US

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — The Eisenhower administration apparently had reason to believe Vice President Nixon might run into trouble in Latin America but, misjudging how much, didn't even think of calling off his trip.

If this assumption is correct — and it seems to be, after what President Eisenhower told his news conference Wednesday—then the administration stuck its neck out. The result? One of the most embarrassing episodes in American history.

What's puzzling is why the administration wasn't better informed on the depth of anti-American feeling since the State Department and the Central Intelligence Agency — this country's eyes and ears abroad — have agents everywhere.

Eisenhower himself didn't attempt to blame what happened to Nixon entirely on the Communists for he said "I don't think there is any single . . . there are economic causes."

The President indicated to his news conference that the possibility Nixon faced trouble in Latin America was talked over before he went. Perhaps nothing worse was expected "than some anti-American shouts and pamphlets."

Eisenhower was asked by a reporter whether this government had anticipated the demonstrations against Nixon would be as violent as they were and whether, in view of that, any thought had been given to canceling part of his trip.

He said: "No. These things were discussed but no thought was given to canceling Mr. Nixon's visits to these countries. In each case he was invited by the government . . ."

"No one, I think, anticipated the violence of — particularly this last riot (in Venezuela) and I think possibly everybody there was a bit caught by surprise."

Everybody here was certainly caught by surprise. Nixon has been thinking of making a good will trip to Europe in the fall. Eisenhower was asked — in view of what happened to Nixon in Latin America — if he thought there was any need for Nixon to reconsider his fall trip.

Eisenhower said: "I wouldn't think so."

It's a pretty good bet that before Nixon goes to Europe — if he goes — the administration will do a lot more thinking about its dangerous possibilities, and a lot more investigating beforehand, than it devoted to his Latin American tour.

Nixon himself apparently never realized the extent of the trouble that lay in wait for him even though he had been cautioned about it.

He had been urged not to go near the hostile students at San Marcos University in Peru but went anyway and was driven back by stones and spit. But when he got to Venezuela and received the same treatment he was more careful.

There, to avoid more trouble, he stayed at the American Embassy and left the country by plane Wednesday night ahead of schedule.

He showed personal courage in the face of a violent mob. But the problem of Nixon's visit to Latin America went far beyond the personal courage of one man. It involved American prestige, foreign relations, and ammunition for Red propaganda.

On all three counts the United States was the loser.

Bomb Tests Or Suspension

Scientific Viewpoint Has Two Schools of Thought

By Joseph A. Dear
Of Our Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — Recent statements of some very responsible officials, including the President, might lead one to conclude the United States opposes a suspension of nuclear weapons tests because building a "clean bomb" is the right thing to do.

But this is not the real reason at all. Those who argue for a continuation of the testing program are guided by practical considerations, not by moral impulses. The "let's keep testing" school wants clean bombs because these weapons will enhance the versatility of American military power. And the keep-testing school also is convinced a suspension would enable Russia to achieve nuclear parity sooner.

The effort to increase the flexibility of nuclear weapons may be superfluous. And perhaps the suspension would tend to freeze weapons technology in Russia and the United States at present levels. Both arguments have been made, the second with great force by Dr. Hans Bethe before the Senate Subcommittee on Disarmament.

Bethe is a first rank scientist of enormous prestige. Dr. James Killian, Ike's special adviser on science, leans on Bethe. It is possible that in the end Bethe's viewpoint will win out, and that Ike will order a suspension.

The stiffest opposition to the Bethe viewpoint comes from the Atomic Energy Commission. The thinking of the AEC unquestionably is profoundly influenced by Dr. W. F. Libby, its scientist member.

The Libby line is that a suspension will surely enable Russia to close the gap. Libby would expect the Russians to eat up our lead even if a suspension agreement were honored. And on that point, every responsible official has misgivings.

Libby's argument is simple enough. We are rolling the technology frontier back with each series of tests. When we make an advance, the Russians usually find out. Not the details, of course, but the fact that progress has been made.

And with that knowledge in hand, they can progress to an extent without conducting tests of their own. Once a scientist knows something can be done, his battle is half over. The Russians, for example, would have had a harder time if we never dropped the first bombs on Japan.

Drs. Bethe and Libby, it must be noted, are working from precisely the same body of information. There is no quarrel between them on substantive facts. It's on the matter of interpretation that they fall out. Bethe's reading of the situation is: stop while we're ahead, and we stay ahead. Libby's reading: push on or we'll be overtaken.

That's the nub of the big argument. Neither of these eminent scientists argues that "clean bombs" must be developed so that a "clean" war can be fought. Humanitarian considerations don't figure in their dispute.

This is not to say that either Libby or Bethe is blind to the moral problems the testing has raised. It's just that their approach is from another angle.

Ruth Millett Says

Strictly American Hot Dog Is Underdog In Brussels

The fact that hot dogs aren't selling like hot cakes at the Brussels World's Fair may be disappointing to Americans who hoped the hot dog would win friends among visitors from other lands.

News stories said high prices in the U.S. pavilion were to blame. But maybe there is a deeper reason.

The hot dog isn't just a sandwich. It's not because it tastes so good that Americans have a weakness for it.

To an American the unmistakable aroma of a hot dog doused with mustard brings back memories of happy times.

It is all tied up with football and baseball games, with carnivals and county fairs, with picnics and barbecues.

It smells of the great outdoors—because that is where it is usually eaten.

It is associated with youth, with crisp Fall days and moonlit nights. But unless you are an American born and bred the hot dog doesn't have those happy associations. It has no association at all for the foreigner who knows the hot dog only by reputation.

For the foreigner, then, the hot dog is just a frankfurter—not too well seasoned—sitting in an elongated bun.

That's why we can't send the hot dog to Brussels and expect it to win friends for us. Bring the foreigner to America and let him meet the hot dog on its own home grounds, and that might be a different story.

When we talk about something being as "American as the hot dog" we mean as American as the hot dog at a ball game or race track or backyard barbecue. We don't mean as "American as a hot dog sent to a fair in Brussels as a good-will ambassador." That's too high falutin' a mission for the lowly dog.

Four Students Suffocated In Salt Load

DETROIT (AP)—Four schoolboys trying to ride a load of salt out the bottom of a railroad hopper car suffocated yesterday when they got stuck in the chute and buried in the avalanche.

Would-be rescuers, called by the victims' two playmates, dug with their bare hands, garbage can covers and other makeshift tools in a desperate attempt to free the trapped youngsters.

They were too late. Only one of the four was alive when freed and he died soon afterward.

An engineer from a nearby switch engine had to be called to move the railroad car so the salt wouldn't pile back into the hopper, hampering efforts to get the children loose.

When the hopper was cleared, two of the boys were found jammed in the bottom with their arms and legs wrapped around each other.

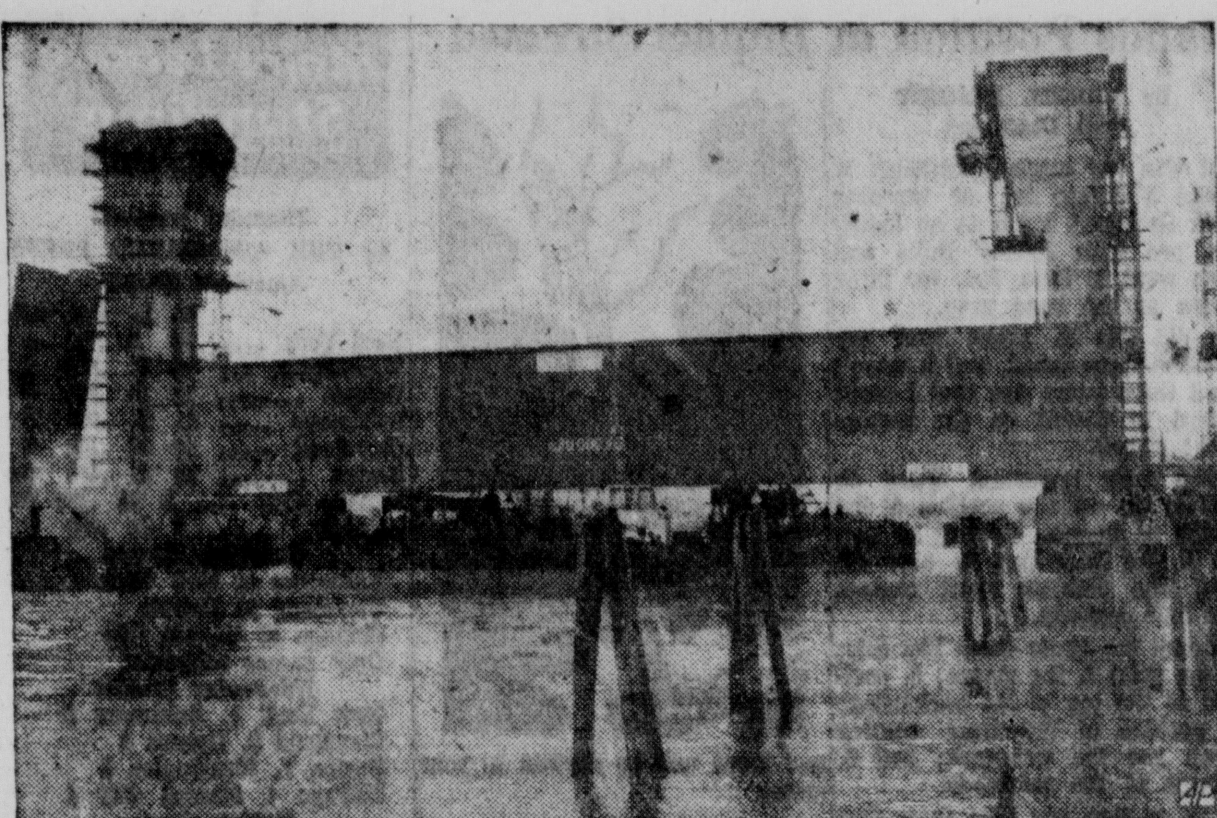

"The head of one of them was sticking out the bottom of the hopper," said John Aloue, who helped recover the bodies. "We tried to shovel the salt away from him but as fast as we moved it, more fell in. He groaned but never said a word."

"We dug with our bare hands and everything else we could lay our hands on," said Elton Rushlau. "I saw one leg and pulled on it. The boy came out with his mouth and eyes filled with salt. I handed him to John Nolan who gave him artificial respiration until the police took him away. I pray to God he lived."

Patrolman Robert Smith and Charles Steffes said the two survivors told how they had learned to operate the dumping mechanism on the gondolas while playing around the train, parked at the rear of the International Salt Co.

The boys said they tripped the levers and watched while the salt poured out. That inspired them to try "riding the salt out of the car," they told police.

Police identified the dead boys as Norman Clatterbuck, 14; Ricky Contardi, 12; Jimmy Healy, 13, and David Lachapelle, 10, all of Detroit. The two who escaped were Danny Lawler and Robert Fisher, both 11 and also of Detroit.

Sox Pitchers Finally Have Healthy Look

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

It's been a long time coming, but the Chicago White Sox pitching staff finally has a healthy look now that Dick Donovan has won his second in a row with a neat four-hitter.

The big right-hander, who lost his first three, gave up nothing but singles and had a one-hit shut-out for seven last night as the White Sox made it two in a row over Kansas City 4-1.

Donovan's five-strikeout job followed an easy 9-2 victory by Early Wynn the night before and gave the White Sox staff two consecutive complete games for only the second time this season.

The best pitching in the American League, however, still is being done by the New York Yankees. The champs gained their largest lead of the season, four games, yesterday with a 1-0 decision over Baltimore as Bob Turley (3-0) blanked the Orioles for the third straight time. It was the sixth shutout by the Yankee staff.

Cleveland used eight pitchers in a 9-4 victory over Detroit as Ray Boone's boner killed a Tiger rally in the ninth. Boston trimmed Washington 7-5.

The White Sox, still without a victory from southpaw ace Billy Pierce, now have won five of seven, and although still in the cellar, are within two games of fourth place.

Singles by Sherm Lollar and Ron Jackson and Jim Rivera's triple scored two in the second and Lollar's sixth-inning homer made it 3-0 against loser Duke Maas (0-3).

Turley spun a four-hitter for his fifth complete game. Al Pilarcik, who singled in Turley's one hit 2-0 victory over Baltimore April 26, had two hits yesterday for the Orioles, who haven't scored in 23 innings.

The Yankees scored in the fifth against loser Billy O'Dell on Tony Kubek's single, an infield out and Mickey Mantle's double.

Dick Gernert's homer opened a two-run ninth for the Red Sox, who over-hauled a 5-0 Washington lead with five in the fifth, three on Bill Renna's pine homer.

Roger Maris belted successive two-run homers for the Indians, the second capping a five-run ninth. Starter Paul Foytack blew a 6-2 Tiger lead, with reliever Tom Morgan the loser. Don Mossi won his second in relief, although Cleveland used three more pitchers in the ninth, when the Tigers scored two. They might have had more, but Boone, unaware that first baseman Mickey Vernon had dropped the ball, thought he was out, flung his helmet into right field and jogged after it while the Indians tracked him down for the final out.

Umpire Stops Game To Protest Pitching

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Plate umpire Frank Umont stopped play in the fifth inning of last night's Chicago-Kansas City game and summoned managers Al Lopez and Harry Craft.

"I want both pitchers to quit that type of pitching," he said sternly. "I won't tolerate it."

Duke Maas of the Athletics had just dusted off Chicago's Bubba Phillips with a high, hard one. The inning before that, Dick Donovan of the Sox did the same to Bob Cerv.

Sets Speedway Record

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—A California driver, Ed Elisian of Oakland, in a California car, built by A. J. Watson of Glendale, unofficially broke the Indianapolis Motor Speedway one lap record Wednesday.

The 290-pound Elisian drove the No. 5 Zink Special around the 2½-mile track at 146.914 miles an hour by electric timer. The official record, set in the 1936 time trials for the 500-mile race, is 146.056 by Pat Flaherty of Chicago.

The first four days of qualifications for the race May 30 will be held Saturday.

Although Flaherty won in 1936, Californians usually dominate the Memorial Day race and its preliminaries.

Four Matches Will Be Held Here Tuesday

Another mat extravaganza will be presented on Tuesday, May 20, at the Sedalia armory. Four top matches are being offered with a ladies tag team match sharing top billing with a man's tag bout.

The present indoor season has been the most successful ever held in Sedalia and the Armory has been the scene of many successive capacity houses.

Some of the mat world's biggest names have appeared in action packed matches since last September and in his endeavor to bring the best in wrestling, promoter Gust Karras has put Sedalia on the map in the midwest, as one of the central states' top wrestling centers.

The girls' tag match will see women's champion Lorraine Johnson teaming up with pretty, but rugged Penny Banner. Both Johnson and Banner have gone undefeated all season. Opposing the Banner-Johnson team will be Laura Martinez, Mexican Pepper, and her partner, powerful Kathy Starr. The girls will have a 60 minute time limit on their match and it will take two out of three falls to win.

The men's tag match finds the German Oak, Otto von Krupp, teaming up with newcomer Cy-clone Sexton. Sexton is making his first appearance in Sedalia and hails from Boston, Mass. The other half of the tag team finds Sonny Myers backing up Flying Joe Scarpa, who made a sensational debut here just a short time ago. Two out of three falls, with a 60 minute time limit, also covers this match.

A single girls' match finds Kathy Starr meeting Lorraine Johnson over the one fall route or fifteen minute time limit.

The single men's match should be most hotly contested when arch enemies Otto von Krupp tangles with popular Sonny Myers. This special event will have a 20 minute time limit and be for one fall. Tickets are on sale now and matches start at 8:15 p.m., but doors at the armory will be open at 7:00 p.m.

Ed Walsh Makes Rare Appearance at Dinner

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP)—Big Ed Walsh, the old Chicago White Sox pitcher, made what may be his last public appearance here Wednesday night at a testimonial dinner marking his 77th birthday.

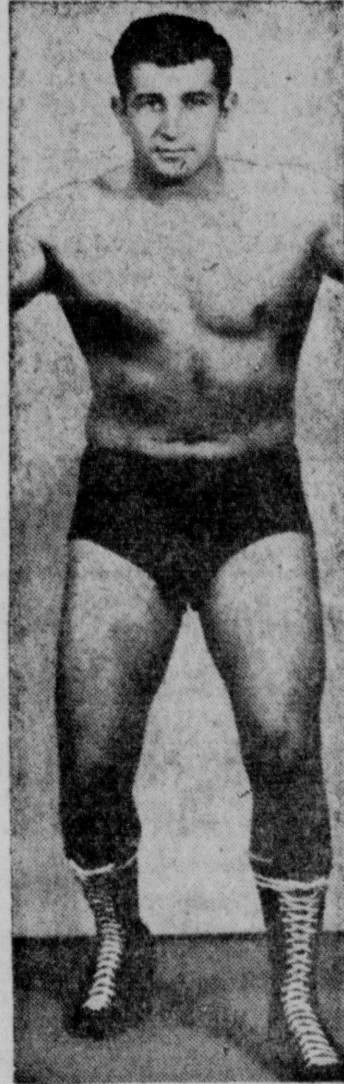

The old spitballer, ill with cancer and confined to a wheel chair, was honored by more than 200 baseball personalities and fans as the climax of "Ed Walsh Day" in Fort Lauderdale.

Brazilian Girl May Inherit Tennis Title

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP)—Europeans are acclaiming a 16-year-old Brazilian girl as the heir apparent to Althea Gibson's tennis throne.

The phenom is Maria Ester Bueno, a slender five-foot-six miss who hits the ball with the power of a man. Recently she won the Rome International title by beating Shirley Bloomer, England's best player, and Lorraine Coghlan, Australia's No. 1 woman, in succession.

JOE SCARPA

Erstwhile Lemon Boasts 5 to 0 Pitching Record

NEW YORK (AP)—Four months ago Baltimore Manager Paul Richards appealed to Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick, charging that the Chicago White Sox had handed him a lame-back pitcher when they traded Jack Harshman to the Orioles in December.

Today this same "crippled" hurler shares the distinction with New York's Bob Turley as the only American League pitchers with 5-0 won-lost records.

How come? Even Harshman can't answer that one.

"I wish I could give you a reasonable explanation," the 30-year-old southpaw said, "but I can't. I'm just as puzzled as anyone else. I guess I've just been lucky."

Lucky? In 36 innings, Harshman has permitted only 18 hits, allowed five runs for a spectacular 1.25 earned run average. He has struck out 22.

"Honest," he said, "I'm not doing a thing differently from last year when I had my poorest season in four with Chicago (8-8). I haven't changed my delivery. I've added no new pitch, my control is not any better. I've walked 21 in 36 innings. That's a lot of walks. Besides, my back still hurts."

Harshman has a slipped disc. All winter, during spring training and during the first few weeks of this season, he was forced to wear a corset. It's only in his last two starts that he's able to pitch without some sort of brace.

Harshman was slated to hook up with Whitey Ford in a southpaw duel today in the hopes of ending the Yankee dominance over Baltimore. The Yankees have won six of seven from Baltimore, the last three shutout victories.

Pirates Breathe Down Necks of Braves

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Led by the revitalized Ted Kluszewski, the rampaging Pittsburgh Pirates—once the doormats of the National League—are breathing down the necks of the world champion Milwaukee Braves.

Only 13 percentage points separate the Pirates and the first place Braves after Kluszewski contributed two timely hits Wednesday night in helping defeat Cincinnati 5-4. It was the Pirates' sixth straight victory and 15th in the last 19 games.

"The significant factor of our success has been our fine pitching," Manager Danny Murtagh said, "but you got to give hitting a pat on the back. Kluszewski has been the bulwark of our attack."

Kluszewski has hit safely in the last nine games. The big first baseman has collected 13 hits in his last 36 appearances at the plate including four home runs and 13 runs batted in. His batting average has jumped from .217 to .280.

Champs Meet In Top Match Of Women's Golf

DALLAS (AP)—Champions meet today in the top match of the Women's Southern golf tournament quarter-finals as Clifford Ann Creed, the college co-ed seeking her second straight title, clashes with Mary Ann Downey of Baltimore, the 1956 queen.

Of almost equal star billing will be the battle of Polly Riley of Fort Worth, five times champion of the tournament, and Frances Rich of Bainbridge, Ga., once Texas state titlist.

In other quarterfinal matches Mrs. Maurice Glick, the Maryland state champion from Baltimore, plays Janice Phelps of Atlanta and Sherry Wheeler, 17-year-old high school girl of Glasgow, Ky., who produced the first big upset of the tournament, tackled Mrs. Mary Ann Reynolds of Albany, Ga., the Georgia state champion.

Miss Wheeler Wednesday knocked down Marge Burns of Greensboro, N.C., the 1957 runner-up who was rated with the top four here, 5 and 4.

Miss Creed, of Opelousas, La., and a student at Lamar Tech, whipped Mrs. W. K. Stripling of Fort Worth, 5 and 4.

Miss Riley had to struggle for a 2 and 1 triumph over Mrs. H. C. Riedel of Dallas. Miss Downey shot even par in taking out Mrs. J. H. Henderson of Alexandria, La., 5 and 4. Miss Rich downed Mary McCutcheon of Jasper, Ala., 5 and 4 while Mrs. Glick eased by Mrs. Robert Monsted of New Orleans, 2-up.

Hands Position at Impact Stressed

By LIONEL HERBERT
PGA Champion

It was my original intention to make a career out of teaching golf. So I took a job as an assistant pro with Johnny Bulla and then went to Erie, Pa., for three years as the head man.

I did this to prove that my theories were sound, and it wasn't until three years ago that I could afford to dabble on the tournament circuit.

The most important thing in golf is the definite position of the hands at impact. Correct or not, do it the way that is best for you. The clubface must contact the ball properly.

Break the game down like this: 1, the grip; 2, the stance; 3, position at the top of the backswing; 4, position of the arms coming down and the wristcock; and 5, release of the wristcock.

Get so that you take these five steps properly and automatically.

Sugar Ray Honored At Sports Dinner

BOSTON (AP)—World middle-weight champion Sugar Ray Robinson will be honored Sunday by the B'Nai B'Rith sports lodge at its annual dinner.

Bill Russell of the Boston Celtics will accept the basketball award; Maurice Richard of Montreal and Jerry Toppazzini of Boston will receive hockey awards; jockey Milo Valenzuela will receive a racing award; Dr. Abram Sachar, president of Brandeis University, will receive the football award and 25 members of the Boston Red Sox will also be honored.

Cards Trade Losing String For 7 Wins

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Hey! Look at those St. Louis Cardinals! They've swapped a seven-game losing string for a seven-game winning streak, hustling out of the National League cellar to fifth place—the highest they've been since opening day.

They made it last night, junking San Francisco's winning spurt at six games and tumbling the Giants out of first place 3-2 as Stan Musial belted back to 500 and Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell blanked Willie Mays with a four-hitter.

The Milwaukee Braves regained the NL lead, beating Philadelphia 4-1 as Warren Spahn became the first to win six in the majors. The persistent Pittsburgh Pirates jumped past the Giants into second, hanging up their second six-game streak of the year with a 5-4 decision over Cincinnati.

The Chicago Cubs, who had lost seven straight, beat Los Angeles 7-3. The Dodgers now have lost six in a row.

Musial, honored before the game by 18,361 fans and NL President Warren Giles for his 3,000th hit at Chicago Tuesday, made his 3,001st a home run that tied it 1-1 in the first. The Man was 3-for-4.

The Cards trailed 2-1 after three then handed Johnny Antonelli his third defeat as Don Blassingame doubled home two unearned runs in the fifth. All the Giants' hits were doubles, two by Daryl Spencer, as Vinegar Bend won his second.

Spahn, like Musial an old pro of 37, gave up five singles, walked three and fanned seven for his 23rd victory in the majors. He also started two doubleplays and tripled home a run. Del Crandall and Johnny Logan homered off loser Ray Semproch (3-3) in the second and third.

Vern Law (5-1) won his fifth straight as the Bucs moved within .013 points of Milwaukee. Ex-Redleg Ted Kluszewski and Bob Skinner each had two doubles and a single, and figured in the first three runs as Charlie Rabe lost his second in relief of ex-Buc Bob Purkey. Ed Bailey hit his first homer, a two-run shot, for the Reds.

Jim Brosnan (3-3) beat the Dodgers with a five-hitter and had a one-hit shutout for five. Pee-wee Reese hit a two-run homer in the sixth for L.A. but Lee Walls, c-for-3, triggered a four-run Cub seventh with his 11th homer, tops in the NL.

and there will be rhythm in your swing.

NEXT: Ken Venturi.

Sonny Liston May Enliven Heavyweights

CHICAGO (AP)—It is refreshing these days to see a heavyweight who looks like he can fight.

Sonny Liston of Philadelphia eventually may prove to be the prospect needed to pump life into the division.

The unranked, 26-year-old former St. Louis Golden Gloves champion made his national TV debut in Chicago Stadium last night. He disposed of Cuba's Julio Mederos with a third round technical knockout to register his 12th straight victory and his 18th in 19 pro starts.

For all of his 204 pounds, Liston displayed poise, grace, power and confidence—and a head-rocking left jab that cut through Mederos' lower lip.

It was this blood-flowing injury that halted the scheduled 10-rounder with the Cuban still in his corner as the bell sounded for the third round. Dr. Irving Slot of the Illinois Athletic Commission advised referee Bernard Weissman to stop the fight.

Perhaps it was just as well, for Mederos, 199, was nearly knocked out in the first round by Liston's relentless left-right flurry, and backed staggering into the ropes under the same barrage in the second.

Mederos' record now is 25-19-3. He has scored 14 knockouts but didn't have a chance to show his punching ability against Liston.

Trainer Jim Wilson said Liston will go to Los Angeles but a fight on the coast has not yet been made.

"I think he could handle either Zora Folley or Eddie Machen," Wilson added.

Only 931 ringside customers were present and the gross gate was $398.

To Have Showdown On Rules Schedule

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP)—The Big Eight Conference faculty committee opens its spring meeting here today with a showdown vote on a letter of intent rule scheduled.

Reaves E. Peters, executive secretary of the Big Eight, said he was sure the matter would be brought to a vote during the three-day meeting, held in conjunction with the conference outdoor track and field championships.

The letter of intent binds an athlete to the school he has agreed in writing to attend.

Already in use by a number of major conferences, the letter prevents one school from recruiting an athlete away from another.

Peters said he wasn't sure what action the conference would take. "There's some opposition to it," he said.

Unidentified WWII Soldier To Be Named

HONOLULU (AP)—The U. S. Air Force tapped one of its top fighter pilots to select the Unknown Soldier of the Pacific fighting of World War II.

Col. Glenn T. Eagleston flew here from Manila for the ceremony. His choice of an unknown serviceman of the Pacific war is to be flown to an American cruiser in the Atlantic to join the unknown of the European fighting, who was selected in Epinal, France, Monday.

One of these two will be, in turn, chosen as the Unknown Soldier of World War II and buried in Arlington National Cemetery. The other will be buried with honors at sea off Norfolk, Va.

Eagleston, 37, was the personal choice of Gen. Laurence S. Kuter, commander in chief, Pacific Air Forces.

Kuter named Eagleston because his "record and personal traits best characterized the Air Force men who served their country during World War II."

In that conflict, Eagleston was a squadron commander and later a deputy group commander in Europe. He was credited with 23½ enemy planes destroyed, two probably destroyed and seven damaged while flying 96 combat missions.

Eagleston also racked up an enviable record in the Korean War. He was credited with two Soviet MIGs downed, seven damaged and one probable kill while piloting F86 Sabre Jets on 94 missions.

He was commander of a fighter-interceptor squadron when he went to Korea in November 1950 and later became a group commander.

Eagleston's top decorations include a Distinguished Flying Cross with three oak leaf clusters and the Air Medal with 26 oak leaf clusters.

He is a native of Farmington, Utah. He and his wife, the former Louise Fahey of Holyoke, Mass. make their home in Yuma, Ariz.

Just One

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—U. S. District Judge Royce Savage asked a defendant if he wanted an attorney.

"I don't know, Judge," he replied.

After listening to several minutes of hemming and hawing, Savage finally told him:

"I sit here all day and make decisions. I think you ought to be able to make this one."

SEE YOUR DEFENSE BOMBERS AT WHITEMAN AIR FORCE BASE MAY 18

The B-47s of the 340th Bomb Wing are always on the alert to go "ANYWHERE ANYTIME" to deter would-be aggressors. The public will be shown this aircraft on Armed Forces Day at Whiteman Air Force Base on Sunday, May 18.

Welcome To Whiteman

Whiteman Air Force Base, near Knobnoster, Mo., home of the 340th Bomb Wing, an Eighth Air Force unit, cordially invites the public, to attend Armed Forces Day open house on Sunday, May 18th.

For the ninth annual Armed Forces Day, the 340th Bomb Wing will have a full program that will inform the public of the mission and importance of the Strategic Air Command in the defense of the Nation.

Visitors will see the sleek B-47 Strato-jet bombers that are capable of carrying nuclear weapons anywhere in the world. Also on display will be the KC-97 flying tankers that make the mission of the B-47s possible by in-flight refueling.

Static displays of aircraft will include an H-19 helicopter, T-28 Trainer, F-86 and F-89 jet fighters, RF-102 Air Defense Command interceptor in addition to the B-47 and KC-97.

Motion pictures of the mission of the Strategic Air Command and the mission of Whiteman will be shown to adults with special movies for the youngsters.

The 340th is one of the SAC units that is on constant alert against surprise attack from any source. Planes of the Whiteman wing maintain a constant state of readiness by flying simulated missions to keep proficient.

Bring your family and friends and see your Air Force in Action. Visit Whiteman on Armed Forces Day, May 18th.

Your Invitation

It is with pleasure that I invite you to Whiteman Air Force Base, for the nation's annual Armed Forces Day.

As a vital member of SAC's "Power for Peace" the 340th Bombardment Wing realizes full well that peace cannot be secured or maintained except through the availability of a strong, effective military force. The success of this effort is dependent upon the combined contributions of all the military services and the full support of the American people.

On behalf of all military personnel, I welcome you and hope your visit will be interesting and informative.

CMSC Student Drowns In Sac River Pond

WALNUT GROVE, Mo., (P)—Pat McDonald, 19-year-old student at Southwest Missouri State College in Springfield, drowned Wednesday when he and three companions went swimming in an old mill pond on the Sac River.

The other three were rescued after they were caught in the swirling water below the dam.

A volunteer skin diving squad organized in Springfield by the Red Cross and Civil Defense was called out for the first time to help recover McDonald's body.

Walnut Grove is his home. The mill pond is at Comet, Mo., west of Walnut Grove in Dade County.

Greyhound Bus Skids Off Slippery Highway

DENISON, Tex. (P)—A Greyhound bus skidded off a rain-slick highway early today, hit a tree and a power pole and split open. A young mother and her child were electrocuted. Four passengers were injured.

A passenger Irvine Echola of Kansas City, Mo., said the bus driver apparently swerved to miss an auto and plunged off the road.

Mrs. Shirley Stith, about 21, of Fort Worth, and her daughter, Melanie Jane, about 1½, were killed. Echola said the baby fell out of a six-foot gap in the side of the bus. When the mother jumped out to get her, he said, they were electrocuted.

Four persons were treated at a hospital in this north Texas city. The bus, with 18 passengers and the driver, was en route from Dallas to Minneapolis.

Sales, Profits Drop

Change In Spending Habits Has Businessmen Worried

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—The change in the spending habits of a lot of Americans has many businessmen worried today. Their worry is backed up in many instances by a drop in sales and in profits.

A swing one way or the other in spending and saving habits is nothing new. They doubtless will change again. But several new factors have entered the scene and only some of them can be laid to the recession itself. Most of them don't involve any lack of confidence in the nation's economy at all.

Government figures show that Americans are still spending heavily. Consumer outlay for consumption in the early months of this year is put at an annual rate of 281 billion dollars and that is more than four billion dollars higher than in the like 1957 period.

Latest figures of the Securities and Exchange Commission are for the year 1957, showing that Americans socked away in one form or another almost 16½ billion dollars, the highest amount for any year since World War II. Their total holdings less debt gives them a net equity of a record 141½ billion dollars.

Thank Note Received By Extension Club

A thank-you note from officials of the Blosser Crippled Children's Home, Marshall, has been received by members of the Happy Valley Extension Club, Benton County, who recently sent a box of toys to children there. The note was read at the May 1 meeting by Mrs. Harper Mowell.

Twelve members attended the meeting, held with Mrs. Herb Long, and answered roll call with "My Pet Peeve." Mrs. Boyd Davidson gave information on starting first-aid classes at the Deer Creek 4-H Club House in the near future and Mrs. Clyde Arnett reported on progress of shrubs and flowers planted at the club house.

Home Agent, Mrs. Georgia Reid, gave a lesson on home mixes and Mrs. Alvin Kugler was in charge of the home demonstrating program.

Corsages were presented to charter members: Mrs. Otto Bybee, Mrs. Boyd Davidson, Mrs. Harper Mowell, Mrs. Clyde Arnett, Mrs. Paul Turney and Mrs. Herbert Long. Refreshments were served.

California Student To Head CMSC Group

The following article appeared in "The Student" published by the Central Missouri State College on May 2:

"A Californian (Missouri, that is) will head Student Center Committee next year. Jim Markham has been named Student Center Activities chairman for 1958-59. Active in Student Center work, Jim was a member of the dance and decoration committee during his sophomore year and received the outstanding Student Center worker award. He has been chairman of the committee this year and is acting activities chairman this term.

"A member of Kappa Sigma Kappa, SGA assembly and Young Democrats Club, Jim is a past member of the orchestra and A Cappella Choir. He is a social studies major and a music minor. Student Center committees are now being appointed and will be announced next week, Markham said."

The brilliantly colored Central American quetzal is the national bird of Guatemala.

Various forms of savings—bank accounts, savings and loan associations, insurance sales—indicate that savings are still mounting.

But the SEC includes as savings the payment of debt. The figures show that for some time now Americans have been paying off old debts at a greater rate than they have been taking on new ones. Since debt items usually cover such big things as homes, autos and household appliances, the industries supplying these are among those hurt most by the slump.

The many service industries, and most of the soft goods industries, are doing as well as ever. Some expect to do even better this year.

Item: Travel. Advance sales and bookings indicate more Americans than ever are going to Europe this year. Item: Utilities. Power running the household gadgets is flowing at a rate to give most companies higher sales. Item: Cameras. Sales of these and other things that strike the American fancy, like phonograph records, are higher this year.

Item: Food. Grocers report there's no letup in the purchases of the choices meat cuts and the convenience foods, prepared or packaged.

Some of the savings are being earmarked for future spending and not for scare hoarding at all. Many Americans increased the size of their families during the 1940s. These children are making their painful way through the schools headed for college.

It could be possible that some persons aren't buying a new car this year because Junior is studying for college entrance exams. And going to college gets steadily more expensive, as family budget makers are well aware.

Others may have gone without some big expenditure on durable goods to make that trip to Europe.

And most persons have higher prices to pay on what they do buy, and many have larger families to feed, clothe, school, and send to the doctor and dentist.

Lack of confidence? More likely other things and more expensive things to spend on—and in an unfortunate number of cases less income to spend.

LaMonte WSCS Holds All Day Meeting

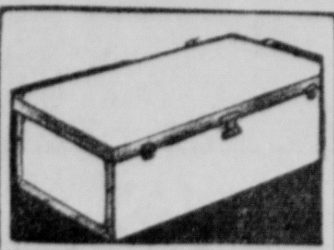

The LaMonte WSCS met all day Friday May 2, with Mrs. Earnest Cole. Mrs. C. A. DeHaven conducted the business meeting with each officer making a report. Mrs. Hazel Noland was elected vice-president and a delegate was elected to go to school of missions for youth at National College.

A report on Southwest Missouri conference was given by Mrs. DeHaven. A pot luck dinner was served at noon. Afternoon meeting was started with 19 members answering roll call. Mrs. Hazel Noland, Mrs. Dollie Eberly and Mrs. R. B. Burke gave the lesson on pledges at which time pledge cards were given out. The Dresden WSCS joined them for the book review given by Mrs. Cole.

New Senate Offices Are A Public Plumbing Oasis

NEW MECCA IN WASHINGTON: Inside the new Senate Office Building's white marble walls, 160 rest rooms.

By JERRY BENNETT
NEA Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The new Senate Office Building may soon become a mecca for the confused, distressed Capitol Hill tourist in search of a rest room. The enormous white marble structure has about 160 of them.

Visitors can easily find 36 public rest rooms on six of the building's nine floors. The ladies' rooms are decorated in rich pink hues while the men's are colored green. Each of the 40 Senate office suites has three rest rooms. One is for the exclusive use of the senator. The other two are reserved for his men and women staff members.

Other rest rooms are spotted throughout the spacious structure for the press, kitchen crews and maintenance personnel.

This oasis of vital public plumbing is only one important attraction that the 24 million dollar building will offer Washington tourists when it's ready for occupancy next fall.

An elaborate auditorium, capable of seating 500 people, will also be available for such events as appearances by important dignitaries. After the auditorium's completion, visitors may also be able to watch dramatic Senate investigative hearings from the soft comfort of theater seats. Television cameras and radio equipment will operate from a large projection room located in the back.

Architects explain that emphasis in designing the building was placed on making it as functional as possible. Anyone who labors under the philosophy that a man works best when he's comfortable will probably agree that the designers succeeded.

Sensors who drive to work can park their cars in a gigantic basement garage.

Sophomores Win First In Play Contest

By JIM COUHIG

The "sophomore jinx" once again came true as the sophomores won first place in the Intramural Play Contest Sunday evening in the local auditorium. It marked the fourth consecutive year in which the sophomore class has captured the championship.

Although the juniors did not succeed in breaking the jinx, they nevertheless continued to dominate the individual performance awards. The Boys Honorable Mention Award went to Mike Dorweiler for his fine performance of "Stubby" a high school boy helping with a play. Jim Couhig won the Best Actor Award for the second consecutive year by playing the dual role of Anthony, a high school janitor, and the ghost of William Shakespeare.

Sophomore Dorothy Anderson won the Best Actress Award for her portrayal of Martha Horst, an impractical mother. The freshman class also won laurels on the basis of Patty Hogan's performance of Miss Pinney, a dressmaker.

Four plays were presented before a large audience: freshman play, "Elmer," directed by Mrs. Ben Klein; sophomores, "No Time for Skirts," directed by Father Pelletier; juniors, "Ghost of a Show," directed by Mrs. Virginia Staley; and the senior play "Sure As You're Born" under the direction of Mrs. Leean Huff.

The judges for the contest were Mrs. Dorothy Kennedy, Joseph Weising, and Larry Riley. The wide distribution of the individual play awards illustrates the keen competition and excellent performances which made the 1958 Intramural Play Contest outstanding.

A picnic, sponsored by the freshman and sophomore classes, was held Monday evening at the Catholic Community Center with the senior class the guests.

Congratulations to Sister M. Hilaria, science teacher, on the celebration of her Golden Jubilee to the sisterhood Sunday. This wonderful event will be officially celebrated later this summer.

New Jersey has had three state constitutions, adopted in 1776, 1844 and 1947.

Begin Commencement Activities on May 18

Commencement activities begin at Warsaw R-3 May 18, with the baccalaureate service at 8 p.m., in the Community Building. The Rev. Martin T. Pope will give the sermon, assisted by other local pastors. May 22 is commencement date. Assistant commissioner of education, Kenneth Kirchner, will be the speaker. Eighth grade commencement will be May 23 at 1 p.m. in the high school study hall.

Warsaw Junior-Senior Banquet Well Attended

The annual Warsaw High School junior-senior banquet was held at the Warsaw Community Building Friday, May 2. The Bob Cummings Dance Band, Sedalia, supplied the "star studded" music to match this year's theme, "Rendezvous of the Stars." The PTA served approximately 140 guests including juniors and seniors, the board of education, faculty and parents. The prom was led off by the president and vice-president of the junior class, Linda Dunn and Lynn Barnhart. To show their appreciation to Mrs. Louise Campbell, the junior sponsor, was presented a corsage of pink rose buds.

By Mrs. Russell Kendrick
KNOB NOSTER—Mrs. Wells H. Thompson entertained her bridge club at her home Wednesday afternoon with three tables of bridge being played. Mrs. Robertine Harfield, Mrs. Robert Overbey and Mrs. Don Helms played substitute hands. Mrs. Ina Richeson received high score. Mrs. Ray Baker the travel award and Mrs. Russell Kendrick low score. Mrs. Thompson served a dessert course.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford R. Clair, Boulder City, Nevada, made a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Tom E. Beatty.

S-Sgt. and Mrs. Ray Jensen, Becky and Debbie, spent last weekend in Topeka, Kan., with Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Harmon.

The Presbyterian Women's Association met at the church recently. Mrs. Fred Neitzert conducted the business meeting. Mrs. Kelly Neitzert gave the Bible lesson from the book, "Meet Dr. Luke." She also gave a prayer on missions. Mrs. Charles Saults presented the lesson, "On Giving Yourself in Praise."

Cemetery Auxiliary Holds Annual Meeting

Knob Noster Ladies Cemetery Auxiliary held its annual meeting at the home of Miss Mary Hogan Tuesday evening, May 6. Mrs. H. C. Schlusing presided at the meeting. Reports of the secretary and treasurer were read. It was decided to contribute $300 to the Cemetery Association.

New officers were elected as follows: president, Mrs. H. C. Schlusing; vice-president, Mrs. Casie Underwood; treasurer, Mrs. Ruth Lane.

A committee composed of Mrs. Underwood, Miss Hogan, Mrs. Fred Neitzert and Mrs. C. L. Saults was appointed to arrange a program for Memorial Day. Mrs. L. P. Lay, Mrs. Frank Neitzert, Mrs. Saults and Mrs. Schlusing were re-appointed to a committee to work on the beautification of the entrance to the cemetery. The final committee appointed was Mrs. W. J. Carr, Mrs. George Winkler, Mrs. Frank Jenks and Mrs. Ruth Lane who are to work on getting the name of the cemetery placed at the entrance.

Given Water Colors at 81, Woman Makes Good at 90

SAN FRANCISCO — A painting career in crescendo at the mellow age of 90 represents the distinction of Cosmy Hulitar, aristocratic widow of a diplomat and mother of famed New York fashion designer Philip Hulitar.

The alert and elegant Mrs. Hulitar, whose works are currently exhibited in a one-woman show here, started her art career at the age of 81, when her children—two sons and a daughter—gave her a set of water colors for her birthday. Her life up to then had been much too busy taking care of social duties as the wife of a distinguished Austro-Hungarian diplomat, the late Michael Hulitar. With her family, she has lived in most of the world's capitals and still is an inveterate traveler. Says she:

"All my life I wanted to paint, but I had no chance. Now I can paint my memories."

These memories range from the Parthenon to her childhood home on the Greek Island of Poros. She was born in Messina, Sicily, of titled Italian parents. Her father, Antonio de Bazzana, was from a family of poets.

It was while Cosmy was a student at the French convent of St. Joseph in Piraeus, Greece, at the age of 12, that she first became interested in painting. But many years were to intervene before she was to fulfill her artistic destiny. Says she:

"There comes a time for everything and this is my time to paint."

I like to give life to color. I never sketch. I build around a thought. I put in a tree or a house and go on from there."

Mrs. Hulitar never studied art, but feels this is no handicap, because "art comes from the heart."

In the nine years since she began painting, Cosmy Hulitar has turned out scores of paintings.

Her works, currently on exhibit at the Legion of Honor in San Francisco, have been shown at Via Margutta in Rome, in New York and at the de Young Museum here. Many of her subjects are religious, one showing a processional of the Greek Orthodox church, another portraying the Virgin Mary at a miraculous ikon on the island of Tulous.

Still others are scenes from her life, such as the time she courted to King George and Queen Olga of Greece.

Mrs. Hulitar speaks fluent Italian, Greek and French. She learned English by reading the newspapers. At present she lives with her daughter, Mrs. Frederick J. Pinchon, in San Francisco.

One son, Andrew, is an artist of Newark, N. J., and the other, Philip, heads his own dress manufacturing firm in New York.

Last summer Cosmy and her daughter toured Italy, where the white-haired dowager found new inspiration for paintings. She looks forward to more travel and more painting. Says she:

"I travel and see things. Then I come home and paint."

COSMY HULITAR: The mother of New York designer Philip Hulitar, who started painting at age of 81, works on a landscape at her San Francisco home. She is the widow of an Austrian diplomat.

MILNOT

has 24% fewer fat calories than evaporated milk!

And look how Milnot compares with these other dairy products in fat calories!

Product	Fat Calories
MILNOT	~10
HALF & HALF	~20
LIGHT CREAM	~30
HEAVY CREAM	~40

Milnot guarantees light, smooth puddings, sauces, gravies and salad dressings. It's 24% lower in fat calories; yet it has twice as much energy-giving protein and minerals as whole milk.

Milnot assures you of lighter cooking results because it's a modern blend of the "lean" (nonfat) parts of milk and delicate vegetable oils. It whips into beautifully light toppings with just a fraction of the fat calories of whipped cream.

Be modern. Try this new Sundae Pie.

LIME CHIFFON SUNDIE PIE

1 9-inch chocolate wafer crumb crust
1 package lime-flavored gelatin
1/4 cup sugar

Combine gelatin and sugar, dissolve in boiling water. Cool to lukewarm. Beat until light; fold in whipped Milnot. Pour into crumb crust. Chill. To make fudge topping, blend 1 square unsweetened chocolate, 1/2 cup sugar, dash of salt and 1/2 cup Milnot in a saucepan. Bring to boil, stirring constantly until thickened. Add 1/2 teaspoon vanilla. Cool. Before serving, pour fudge topping over pie filling. Top with sweetened whipped Milnot. Garnish with chocolate mint patties, maraschino cherries, and chopped nuts.

Cornmeal Time Down South

SOUTHERN GOODNESS: These fish fillets are friend southern style—in a crisp coating of cornmeal—and served with a spicy barbecue sauce.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Southern cooks have a way with cornmeal. Ever call the roll and name the good dishes made with it?

Eaten spoonbread lately? Know the satisfaction of dipping a big spoon into the puffy soft cornmeal-and-egg mixture and lifting out a generous helping onto your own plate? Now the butter goes on to melt and spread itself in rich rivulets. Taste some forkfuls of the spoonbread with baked ham and maybe watermelon pickles! Anything better than that unique combination of bland and rich?

Who likes hush puppies? Made from a thick batter of cornmeal and milk or buttermilk, maybe eggs, sometimes seasoned with onion, they're eaten straight out of the frying kettle. "Serve and eat them white hot!" Southern cooks command.

A basket of cornsticks comes to the table—and doesn't go begging. Baked in familiar black iron pans, with wells shaped like corn on the cob, they're hot and crusty and ready to enliven suppertime.

Violins Carved
By L. V. Porter
Win First Prize

The handcarved violins of Leonard V. Porter, former Sedalian now residing in Kansas City, were the first place winners in the recent woodworking contest sponsored by Albert Constantine and Son Inc., New York City.

In a letter to Mrs. Mamie Kincaid, 1831 West Third, who is his sister, Porter told of entering his violins in the contest last March and was notified several days ago of his entry being selected for the first place. He received a $100 check as his reward.

Porter, who lost an arm many years ago, has taken up carving for a hobby and specializes in the carving and making of violins. He has received nation-wide publicity through his fine work under such a handicap.

A special story on Porter and his violins will appear in the July-August issue of Home Craftsman Magazine, in connection with the Lumber Project Division contest, in which all contestants entered their articles made of wood.

He also received a personal letter from Albert Constantine, Jr., president of the Albert Constantine and Son, Inc.

COIN EDGES

Coins have milled edges to protect them from wear and clipping. These also aid in distinguishing them by touch and, to some extent, facilitates stacking and handling them.

And what's wrong with just plain cornbread? Made of white or yellow cornmeal, baked thick in a deep square pan or thin in a shallow pie plate, either way it comes to the table burning hot, a split second after it's baked. In another second it's split open and thick squares of butter are sandwiched between its layers to ooze out golden goodness.

Who wouldn't get up in the morning in time for breakfast knowing batty cakes were coming up? Thin cornmeal pancakes they're called up North. But no matter what they're named, their edges are thin and lacy. Syrup or molasses goes over these and maybe fried apples accompany them. One thing's certain: dozens and dozens of batty cakes can be downed at a sitting along with steaming hot cups of coffee.

What about the Southern way of dipping fish fillets in cornmeal so the outside has a crisp coating and the inside is moist and succulent?

And that brings us to our fish story. We served these golden-brown crunchy fillets with the sort of sauce that's sometimes used in barbecuing—spicy with tomato catchup, onion, green pepper, brown sugar and Worcestershire sauce. Another Southern favorite, baby green Lima beans, is a good vegetable to serve with the fish. Add a salad of watercress and paper-thin cucumber slices for something crisp.

SOUTHERN FISH FILLETS WITH BARBECUE SAUCE

Ingredients: 1 cup enriched cornmeal, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons onion salt, 1 large egg, 2 pounds of fish fillets, fat for frying, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1/2 cup chopped green pepper, 2 tablespoons dark brown sugar, 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup catchup, 2 tablespoons prepared mustard.

Method: On a piece of waxed paper, mix together the cornmeal, 1 teaspoon salt and onion salt. Beat egg until quite frothy. Cut fillets in serving-size pieces. Dip one piece of fish at a time into egg, then into cornmeal mixture, coating both sides. (If there isn't enough egg toward end, add a tiny bit of water.) Fry fillets in a large skillet in hot fat that is 1-inch deep. (If skillet is electric, set control at 350 degrees, then make hotter if necessary.)

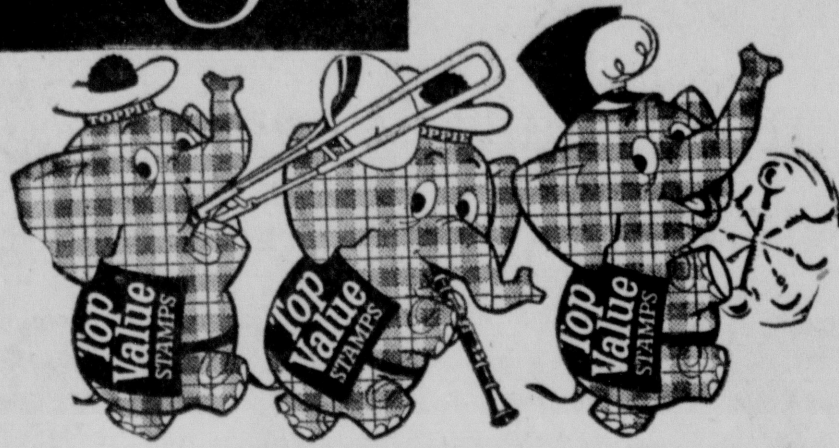

To make the sauce, melt butter in an 8-inch skillet or 1-quart saucepan; add onion and green pepper and brown lightly. Add remaining ingredients and heat. Serve sauce with fillets. Makes 6 servings, with an ample amount of sauce.

Note: If you use a square 11-inch electric skillet, you'll need about 1 cup fat; we like to use half butter and half peanut oil.

Old Guard Raises Barrier For Rock 'n Roll Children

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Sorrow comes in time to many fine old families. But the tragedy that has befallen Louis and Elaine Lorillard of Newport is indeed almost unbearable.

Their only two children—Pierre, 8, and Didi, 11—are rock 'n' roll fans.

"We are doing our best to convert them," said Elaine bravely, "but so far we have had no luck."

What makes her plight even more ironic is that she and her husband, an agile offshoot from the proud old Lorillard tobacco tree, are perhaps 'merica's leading missionaries for a pre-rock 'n' roll type of music—the one known as jazz.

In fact they are famous for having brought jazz to Newport, the sedate Rhode Island seaside resort where they dwell in a mansion so large Mrs. Lorillard never has found enough free time to count its rooms.

Until 1954 the most notable music in Newport was the soft slap of surf on sand, the genteel murmuring of hardening arteries and the vague noises of dear old ladies reading the novels of Henry James aloud to cure their insomnia.

But in that year the Lorillards staged the first of a series of annual jazz festivals there.

The barriers of the Old Guard—their lorgnettes—were raised at once in an icy wall against the invasion.

"The resentment wasn't so much against the music, as the fact the town was overrun all at once by 3,000 visitors," said Elaine. "But the tradespeople were happy."

"We were boycotted for a time socially, in a very subtle way. I think that's all over now, but frankly I don't care."

The truth is that many of the Old Guard have swung the other way. Many are looking forward to the fifth jazz festival this summer, at which 60,000 visitors are expected.

It will be featured by a specially created international youth band, made up of young jazz musicians from 17 foreign countries, including two from behind the Iron Curtain. Its concert will be recorded by the Voice of America and broadcast overseas.

"This should be very exciting," said Mrs. Lorillard. "To many Europeans jazz is the only form of culture America has produced."

Elaine, a pretty blonde who wears blue sunglasses—what other color would be suitable in Newport—and a diamond ring that would blind an owl at midnight is now known by the trumpet-toting set as "the First Lady of Jazz."

It was a common interest in this form of music that sparked the romance of Elaine and Lorillard. They met in Europe during World War II. She was a Red Cross worker. He was a major.

Syracuse Homemakers Meet With Mrs. Decker

Mrs. Earl Decker was hostess recently to the Syracuse Homemakers Club. A fried chicken dinner was enjoyed at the noon hour.

Mrs. Kester Potter called the meeting to order. The song service was led by Mrs. George Putnam, accompanist Mrs. Donald Zumsteg. Mrs. Bob Potter gave the devotional. Fifteen members answered roll call by telling "Their Favorite Energy Saving Electrical Appliance."

Mrs. Norbert Langkop and Mrs. Forrest Lewis, presented an interesting and instructive program on the "Correct and Safe Way to Use Electric Appliances."

At the business session, Mrs. M. T. Keovil, chairman of the community improvement committee reported on the plans of repairing the community building and the estimated cost of the same. The club then voted to proceed with the work and gave a substantial donation.

Mrs. Keovil read part of a letter from Alfred K. Baur, M. D., superintendent of State Hospital No. 1 at Fulton. Mrs. Stanley Palmer read a letter from Miss Zimmerman.

The president announced the music festival to be held in the Methodist Church, Versailles, May 6. Mrs. Donald Zumsteg and Mrs. Stanley Palmer will represent the Syracuse Club with a cornet and piano number.

The June meeting will be with Mrs. Earl Palmer. In conclusion Mrs. Decker was presented with a basket of hostess gifts.

More than 1,000 top-flight scientists in 127 hospitals, universities, and laboratories throughout the United States are working under research grants from the American Cancer Society, seeking new cures for cancer. Working with them are some 3,000 younger men and women serving as technicians or being trained for larger responsibilities.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stahl spent the weekend in Bentonville, Ark., with her brother, Arthur Neimeyer, and with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wood. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Stahl, Syracuse and Mrs. Guy Moon, Harrisonville.

Mrs. James Needy, Clifton City, spent last week with Mrs. W. W. Anthony.

Dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Lewis were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kehr and family, Meadville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Betteridge, Buncheon, were dinner guests Sunday of Mrs. Emmet Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Sanders had all of their children with them recently except James, who lives in Alabama. They were Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Hain, Tipton, Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Sanders and family, Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas and family, Syracuse, Nolan Sanders, Kansas City, Mr. and Mrs. George Page and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Sanders and Larry Sanders.

Recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Klein were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Monsees and family, Arthur Lee Klein and children, Kansas City, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Klein, Hale, and Mrs. James DeHaven and children, Sedalia.

Byrd Moore, California, visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Glen Fisher. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Wilcox, Versailles.

Mrs. Walter Sparks, LaMonte, spent Thursday with Mrs. Sallie Burford.

Those who went from the Baptist Church to Hannibal recently to attend the State Brotherhood and RA convention were the Rev. Earl Swafford, Joe Wallenburn, F. L. Cole from the Brotherhood and Don Bentzin, Billy Speaker, Eddie Jones from the RA's.

Mrs. Laura Conway, MoPae station agent, returned recently from a month's vacation spent in the eastern states. She attended the national DAR convention as a delegate from her home town, Marshall. The convention was held in Washington, D. C.

Hero Sandwich Finally Comes Into Own

BE A HERO: This Hero-Boy sandwich with an Italian-style filling of green peppers and scrambled eggs will win you accolades as a party dish.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

A mammoth-size sandwich has been getting around under a lot of aliases. Call it a hero, jawbreaker, grinder, submarine, poor boy, wedgie, hoagy, dagwood, zep, gondola, torpedo, gismo or BIG SANDWICH. It all depends on where you live. But one thing is certain, this sandwich is made from an individual loaf of French or Italian bread—white or whole wheat—or a long loaf of the same, cut into shorter lengths.

Larry Cramer Takes Part In Navy 'Strikex'

Larry A. Cramer, hospital corpsman third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd E. Cramer, 812 South Barrett, aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Bennington, and Arlie V. Knox, aviation machinist's mate third class, USN, son of Mrs. Claude V. Knox, Cole Camp, attached to Fighter Squadron III, took part in "Strikex," a U.S. First Fleet striking force exercise held off the coast of Southern California during May 5-9.

Nineteen ships, plus carrier and land-based aircraft from 15 squadrons took 12,000 personnel into the operation.

Ships and aircraft at sea formed the fast-moving "blue" attacking forces which launched raids against simulated targets on the West Coast. "Orange" defensive forces consisted of Navy attack, fighter and patrol aircraft and submarines based on the West Coast. Striking force exercises are designed to give advanced training to personnel preparing to deploy to the Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

Its filling is something out of this world—a mountain of savory foods to dream about. Ham, salami, bologna, head cheese are some of the meats that may be piled on top of each other, layer on layer. Tuna fish, smoked salmon, anchovies might be the layers of fish. Next, comes cheese. Then vegetables—green peppers (raw or roasted), pimiento, raw onion, tomato, lettuce. Olives and pickles give everything extra flavor. No law says you have to include all these; that's the best part of these structures—you can choose your favorites for the filling.

For an easy-give party, all you have to do is provide plenty of fillings and let everyone make his own sandwich. You can use individual loaves of Italian or French bread, or the long loaves cut into shorter lengths (for delicate eaters) or the individual brown-and-serve loaves of French bread available in many grocery markets.

You can also serve another type of mammoth sandwich, one we call a hero-boy, made of scrambled eggs and green peppers. Ever since we met up with this combination, sold over the counter to take out, at a fascinating foreign food shop in New York's East 20's, we've been addicted to it. We're not saying the following version is exactly like the original, but it's mighty good eating.

OUR HERO BOY
Ingredients: 2½ tablespoons olive oil, 1 medium-sized onion (cut into thin strips), 1 large green pepper (cut into thin strips), 4 eggs, 1 tablespoon water, 2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese, ½ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, two 6-inch lengths of French or Italian bread.
Method: Cook gently the olive oil, onion, green pepper in 8-inch skillet, covered, until tender for about 20 minutes. Beat eggs, water, cheese, salt and butter together lightly. Add to pepper mixture and cook as you would scrambled eggs. Serve at once between hot lightly buttered (if desired) lengths of crusty bread. Makes 2 servings.

Father's breakfast muffins

The Recipe
Blend together 2 tablespoons sugar and 1½ teaspoons cinnamon; set aside. Sift together 1½ cups sifted all-purpose flour, 2 teaspoons Clabber Girl Baking Powder, ¼ teaspoon salt, and ¼ cup sugar. Cut in ¼ cup shortening until mixture is fine; stir in 1 egg and ¼ cup milk until just blended; add all at once to flour mixture; stir until ingredients are just dampened. Fill 12-2½ x 1¼-inch greased muffin pans one-fourth full of batter. Sprinkle each with about ¼ teaspoon sugar-cinnamon mixture. Top with remaining batter evenly, smoothing the surface. Bake in a 400° F. (hot) oven about 20 minutes. Serve hot. Yield: 12 muffins.

The most important thing about baking...

It's the balance of ingredients in baking powder that governs its leavening action. Only when these are scientifically balanced can you be sure of uniform action in the mixing bowl plus that final, balanced rise to light and fluffy texture in the oven.

Businessmen Worry About Habit Change

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — The change in the spending habits of a lot of Americans has business men worried today. Their worry is backed up in many instances by a drop in sales and in profits.

A swing in spending and saving habits is nothing new. They doubt less will change again. But several new factors have entered the scene and only some of them can be laid to the recession itself.

Most of them don't involve any lack of confidence in the nation's economy at all.

Government figures show Americans still are spending heavily. Consumer outlay for consumption in the early months of this year is put at an annual rate of 281 billion dollars and that is more than 4 billion dollars higher than in the like 1957 period.

Latest figures of the Securities and Exchange Commission are for the year 1957, showing that Americans socked away in one form or another almost 16½ billion dollars, the highest amount for any year since World War II. Their total holdings less debt gives them a net equity of a record 141½ billion dollars.

Various forms of savings—bank accounts, savings & loan associations, insurance sales — indicate that savings are still mounting.

But the SEC figures show that for some time now Americans have been paying off old debts at a greater rate than they have been taking on new ones. Since debt items usually cover such big things as homes, autos and household appliances, the industries supplying these are among those hurt most by the slump.

The many service industries, and most of the soft goods industries are doing as well as ever—some expect to do even better this year.

Item: travel. Advance sales and bookings indicate more Americans than ever are going to Europe this year.

Item: utilities. Power running the household gadgets is flowing at a rate to give most companies higher sales.

Item: food. Grocers report there's no letup in the purchases of the choices meat cuts and the convenience foods, prepared or packaged, that today's housewife prepares to the cheaper victuals out of which Grandma fashioned meals with considerably more effort.

Most persons have higher prices to pay on what they do buy, and many have larger families to feed, clothe, school, and send to the doctor and dentist.

General Rules For Vegetable Cookery

Heat, air, water and light are enemies of food value.

Use little or no water. If water is necessary, it should be boiling when vegetables are added. Cook as quickly as possible. Cutting green beans lengthwise shortens time and gives a product with a more attractive green color. Cook all vegetables only until tender. Beware of overcooking.

Boil vegetables gently to avoid breaking them.

Cook vegetables in salted water in order to improve the color of green vegetables and the flavor of all vegetables.

Often cook vegetables in their skins. But if you peel them, scrape or thinly pare them. Potatoes cooked in their skins lose little food value. If family members object to peeling, cook the potatoes first and peel afterwards.

Remove coarse stems, ribs and other hard, fibrous parts of vegetables to shorten the cooking time.

Season vegetables simply. Do not cover the fine flavor of the vegetable with high seasoning or rich sauces.

Serve vegetables as soon as they are done because delay causes loss of color, flavor and food value.

When cooking green vegetables, remove the lid after a few minutes to let the first full steam out. This helps keep the attractive green color.

Wilted Greens

To every two quarts of tender greens (wild or garden, one or a combination of young green leaves) measured after they are looked over, washed, and shredded, allow one-fourth cup meat drippings, one-half cup of vinegar, and if desired a small onion chopped. Cook the onion in the fat until it turns yellow. Add the vinegar and when it is near boiling, add the greens. Cover and cook just until the leaves are wilted. Season, place in a hot dish and serve immediately.

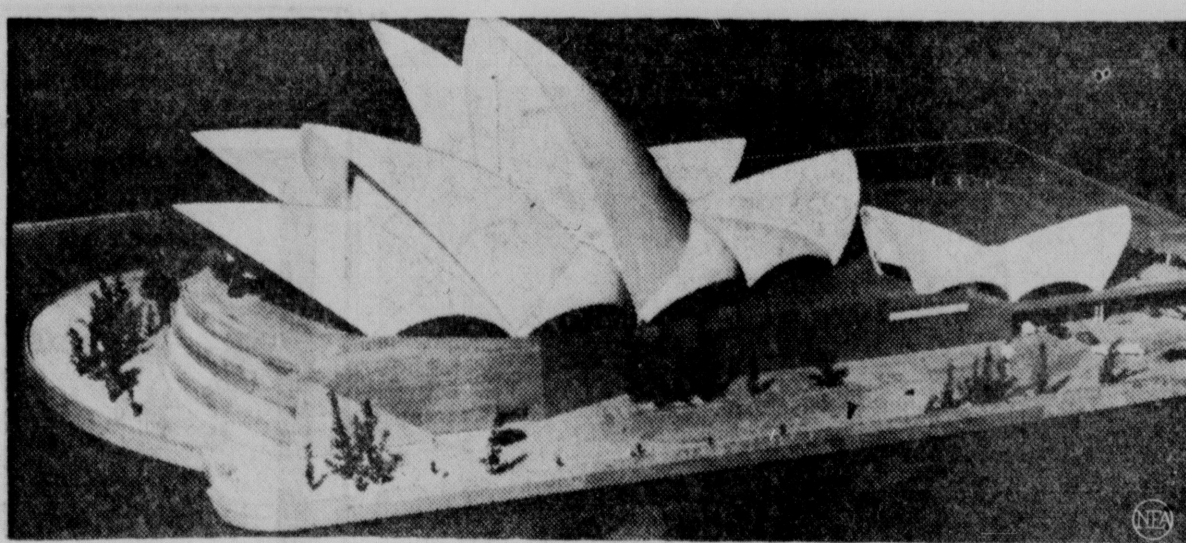

The Art of Handling Greens

The art of handling greens for salads is truly an art. Have greens and plates cold. Have the greens clean, crisp and dry. Break or tear greens into bite-size pieces, never cut. Mix just before serving. Sprinkle with dressing, toss lightly.

Amendment Seen

Blair Will Return To 2-Year Budget Plan

JEFFERSON CITY (P)—Gov. James T. Blair announced Thursday he will go back to the two-year budget system at the 1959 session of the Missouri Legislature.

But he indicated strongly he probably would recommend a constitutional amendment to provide for annual legislative sessions—one of them limited to budget and emergency problems—plus an increase in legislative pay.

"It is unfair," he said, "to ask legislators, who make only $125 a month, to sacrifice money and time to attend a special appropriation session."

The annual budget session was used during the current biennium, he explained, only because he had a special arrangement with the legislature so he could set up a new system of budgeting with a special staff to develop the figures.

Blair noted both the constitution and the statutes call for only one regular session each two years and for biennial budgets. In this biennium, the 1957 regular session made appropriations on a one-year basis, set up the new budgeting procedure, then returned at the governor's call for a 60-day special session to pass appropriations for the fiscal year that opens July 1.

The governor said he still favors the annual system because more accurate estimates of needs can be made on a one-year basis than under the biennial system, when estimates have to be made as far as 18 months in advance of the time the money will be spent.

He said the annual system "would be more desirable and ought to be recommended" but did not commit himself to making such a recommendation.

"Prior to the convening of the general assembly," his statement said, "I will give consideration to whether I should recommend a constitutional amendment to establish regular annual legislative sessions and to increase legislators' pay; and whether to recommend changes in the statutes to provide for annual budgets."

Blair said almost every legisla-

Plane Crash Kills 20; 18 Persons Survive

NEW DELHI, India (P)—A Con- vair plane of the Pakistan National Airways crashed and burned after taking off here Thursday. Five Americans were aboard.

An airways statement said 20 persons were killed, including 4 crew members, and 11 of 18 survivors were injured severely enough to need hospital treatment.

The fate of the Americans was not immediately determined. Sixteen of the 32 passengers and two of the six crew members survived, a company spokesman said. The only two identified dead were Britons.

Most passengers were Indians and Pakistanis. In addition to the Americans, a spokesman said the passengers included five Britons, two Germans, two Russians and a Dutchman.

To Build 86,600 Cars

DETROIT (P)—The nation's car factories will build 86,600 cars this week, highest volume in six weeks, Automotive News reported Thursday. The total will compare with 78,506 assemblies last week and 127,390 in the like 1957 week.

Four Suits Seeking Total of $186,750 Filed Against 'Star'

KANSAS CITY (P)—Four suits seeking a total of $186,750 under the Sherman antitrust act were filed in U. S. District Court Wednesday against the Kansas City Star.

The allegations were similar to those in other suits filed against the newspaper since it was convicted of monopolizing and attempting to monopolize the dissemination of news and advertising in the Kansas City area.

The four contended they were required to buy advertising space in both the morning and evening editions and were required to purchase double columns when they desired only one column.

The plaintiffs and the amounts: National Theater Corp. Kansas City, Kan., $69,000; Park Theater, Kansas City, Kan., $12,750; Jayhawk Amusement Co., Kansas City, $87,000, and the J. A. M. Inc., Terrace Drive-in Theater, Lee's Summit, $18,000.

Mother and Her Baby Electrocutted as Bus Tears Down Powerline

DENISON, Tex. (P)—A bus skidded on a wet highway Thursday and tore down a powerline which electrocuted a baby and her mother.

Driver James Stowe of Tulsa, Okla., apparently swerved the Jefferson Line bus to miss a car and it plunged off the road. Three persons required hospital care.

Melanie Jane Stith, 1½, was thrown through a six-foot gap torn in the bus side. She thrashed helplessly in the mud and finally touched the deadly, hissing wire. Mrs. Shirley Stith, 21, of Fort Worth tried to get her baby. She died instantly.

Electricity from the broken power line coursed through the metal parts of the vehicle. Stowe received a slight shock and warned the 15 passengers to remain inside the bus because contact with the wet ground might cause death. They waited 45 minutes until linemen removed the broken wire.

The bus was en route from Dallas to Minneapolis.

May Wheat Only Grain To Finish With Loss

CHICAGO (P)—Activity in grain futures on the board of trade Thursday was little more than a contest between longs and shorts in the May contracts, particularly wheat.

Prices were higher all along the line until May wheat went into a whirl shortly before the close. It was the only contract to finish with a loss. About a half-hour before the finish it had a gain of about 1½ cents a bushel as short interests bid the prices up in a drive to cover commitments.

But in the final few minutes of the day, attracted by the higher prices, poured into the pit and the price skidded almost three cents. Traders said, however, it was only a minor skirmish and preliminary to a tougher battle still to come in the evening up struggle.

At the close, wheat was ¾ cent a bushel lower, corn ¼-1¼ higher, oats unchanged to ¾ higher, rye unchanged to 2¼ higher, soybeans ¼-½ lower, and lard 25 cents higher.

Fined $20 for Tossing Chicken in a Clay Pit

FULTON, Mo.—(P)—Throwing a chicken in a water filled clay pit cost John Rogers of Fulton $20 in police court along with perhaps another dollar to pay the person who owned the chicken.

Police said the incident took place at a large pit in southwest Fulton after Rogers ran off with a chicken from the property of Mrs. Harrison Warfield. The chicken drowned. Rogers is serving out his fine in jail.

100,000 Turn Out to Cheer The Nixons

Eisenhower Predicts Riots Will Help, Not Hurt Relations

WASHINGTON (P)—President Eisenhower led an estimated 100,000 flag-waving, applauding, cheering persons in giving a hero's welcome to Vice President Nixon Thursday on his return from his riot-scarred South American trip.

Beaming proudly, Eisenhower greeted Nixon at the airport and confidently predicted that riots against him in Venezuela would strengthen rather than hurt relations with Latin America.

"All America welcomes them home," said Eisenhower as he warmly greeted Nixon and his wife when they stepped off the plane which brought them from Puerto Rico, the last stop on their trip.

Nixon, seemingly flabbergasted and delighted at the big celebration to the White House, waving and smiling to well-wishers along the route.

The crowd estimate was made by Wiley Buchanan, whose job as State Department protocol officer has made him something of a specialist on crowds at official ceremonies. He figured there were 15,000 at the airport and 85,000 along the route to the White House.

The sidewalk spectators, mostly government employees excused from work, applauded steadily and jiggled. "Welcome Home" signs as Nixon's automobile reached downtown Washington.

Eisenhower, realizing it was Nixon's day, sat back letting his No. 2 man smile and take the bows from crowds who clearly regarded him as a conquering hero.

At the airport, Nixon and his wife, Pat, a pink-flowered hat perched on her head, were greeted by congressional leaders of both parties, virtually the entire Cabinet, dozens of diplomats and other government officials.

Lebanon On Brink of Tragedy?

Bombings, Gunfire May Be Curtain Raiser General Mid-East Turmoil

EDITOR'S NOTE—William L. Ryan, AP foreign news analyst, has arrived in Beirut at the start of a swing through the Middle East. Ryan has toured the area many times and is an authority on the trends that underlie the news there.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

BEIRUT, Lebanon (P)—Bombings and gunfire flayed this tortured capital Thursday in continuation of what many people feared may be a curtain raiser to general Middle East turmoil.

President Camille Chamoun appeared to be winning out, at least for the time being. But many in Beirut expressed belief this little country, which normally is an oasis of sanity in this part of the world, is teetering on the brink of tragedy unless a compromise is reached between the government and the opposition.

This situation is far from a strictly internal Lebanese affair. Other forces are deeply involved, including United Arab Republic propaganda agents from Cairo and Damascus, as well as Communists operating in the background and taking fullest advantage of the strife here.

Lebanon has a pro-Western government which has been under constant pressure from Damascus and Cairo. Damascus and Cairo are now taking advantage of the internal situation in which a pro-Nasser opposition is fighting the government foreign policy.

The government can win this stage of the battle, which seems to have been touched off prematurely by opposition forces, and possibly restore order by using the firmest measures.

But there are new complications ahead in the attempt to retain a delicate balance here between Moslems and Christians in the government.

The country is half Christian and half Moslem and it is caught in the eddy of cold war politics stirred up by two great opposed,

Khrushchev Getting Bolder

Russia's Sputnik III Weighs Nearly 1½ Ton

MOSCOW (P)—Russia fired its third Sputnik into orbit Thursday, a 1½-ton, cone-shaped monster far heavier than any of the five satellites hitherto launched by man.

In a Kremlin speech taunting U. S. science, Premier Nikita Khrushchev implied the West now must come to terms with Moscow, although the Soviet Union did not want to use Sputnik III to "harm humanity or to blackmail the world."

Khrushchev appeared to be referring to the possible military implications of a rocket powerful enough to propel ponderous Sputnik III into space. It is more than twice as heavy as Sputnik II, the largest satellite launched previously.

Khrushchev told his Kremlin audience, which included visiting President Nasser of the United Arab Republic he did not want to belittle U. S. achievements but "it would take a lot of orange-sized Sputniks to compare with ours."

"We must stop scaring each other," Khrushchev declared, and in obvious reference to an East-West summit conference added: "We must sit down at the same table and talk about how we can live together in peace on our common planet."

Sputnik III joins three small U. S. satellites and ends a month-long space famine for Soviet scientists. They have had no satellite aloft since Sputnik II dipped into the earth's dense lower atmosphere April 14 and burned out in the Caribbean.

Whirling about the earth once every 106 minutes at a maximum altitude of 1,168 miles, Sputnik III should be visible to the unaided eye in the rays of the rising and setting sun, according to an official announcement by Tass, the Soviet news agency.

The rocket that sent it aloft also went into orbit close behind and presumably also will be visible. No information was given on the rocket's size, but it must have been a big one. Tass said nothing about a living passenger on Sputnik III. Sputnik II carried Laika, the dog.

The official statistics on Sputnik III are: Gross weight 2,925.53 pounds; instrument weight 2,133 pounds; length 11 feet 8½ inches; diameter at base 5 feet 8 inches; angle or orbit 65 degrees from the equator.

The weight compares with 1,120 pounds reported for cone-shaped Sputnik II, 184 pounds for spherical Sputnik I, and 31 pounds for Explorer III, heaviest of the U. S. satellites.

Nothing was said about the closest approach to the earth or the possible life span of Sputnik III. But orbit time and maximum height are similar to Sputnik II, which approached to within 150 miles of earth and was in orbit 5½ months.

Columbian Will Head Missouri Heart Assn.

COLUMBIA (P)—Dr. Roland Ladenson of Columbia was named president-elect of the Missouri Heart Assn. here Wednesday night at the association's annual meeting.

He will become president a year from now, succeeding Dr. E. E. Glenn of Springfield, who became president.

Other officers elected were Dr. James G. Janney Jr., St. Louis, vice president; Dr. James A. Kinder, Cape Girardeau, secretary; and Harry Wuerth, Kansas City, treasurer (re-elected).

The association awarded $21,256 to the University of Missouri for research; $4,000 to St. Louis University; and $3,600 to Washington University of St. Louis.

Fellowships were awarded to Dr. Frank Mohs of the University of Missouri and Dr. Kyohel of Washington University.

De Gaulle Makes Bid For Power

Paris Pleads For Emergency Police To Deal With Riots

PARIS (P)—The hard-pressed French government pleaded Friday for emergency police powers to deal with riots, chaos and rightist uprisings in behalf of Gen. Charles de Gaulle.

The government faced a spectre of the rightist De Gaulle returning to power from bitter oblivion.

De Gaulle already has with him the mobs and military people who hold Algeria in defiance of the Paris government.

Premier Pierre Pflimlin's two-day-old government goes into a mid-morning session of Parliament with its appeal for a state of emergency—just short of martial law—in all continental France. The request does not include Algeria.

A cryptic bid for power from De Gaulle and quickening of the rightist revolt in Algeria forced the showdown upon Pflimlin.

He announced the decision to call for imposition of the state of emergency. It was made at a full Cabinet meeting with President Rene Coty at the Elysee Palace, the French White House, that lasted far beyond midnight Thursday.

Two Communist chieftains—whose party is excluded from the government—made a 20-minute call at the palace while the ministers met. They were Jacques Duclos, the party's acting secretary general, and Waldeck Rochet, his top aide.

The Communists call De Gaulle a Fascist. They are among many French groups opposing his return.

The Communist newspaper L'Humanite issued a special edition appealing to France to "bar the road to De Gaulle."

Organized labor, led by Communists and Socialists, put out a flood of statements indicating union members were prepared to launch demonstrations and general strikes against reapparance of the 67-year-old-fighting French hero of World War II as the government's boss.

Pflimlin did not spell out exactly what the state of emergency would mean. It commonly means suspension of civil rights, such as freedom of speech and freedom of assembly.

The government also will ask Parliament for special powers to maintain order, including dissolution of subversive groups. This was taken to mean militant right-wing groups, where De Gaulle finds much of his support.

The French military command and French settlers in Algeria abruptly formed an Algerian government and pledged to return De Gaulle to the helm of state.

"Vive De Gaulle!" was the cry in Algiers.

The French of Algeria, whose rightist revolt was launched by street mob Tuesday, believed they were near victory over the Paris regime of Premier Pflimlin.

But center and leftist groups appeared to be closing ranks against what a Communist manifesto called the threat of military fascism and dictatorship.

The top issue in this gravest of France's postwar crises is conduct of the 3½-year-old war against the Algerian nationalist rebels.

Most cries for De Gaulle's return have been raised by political right-wingers and tough-minded army officers in Algeria who fear another Indochina debacle.

Yet the army is far from unified. The parachute troop units have been making most of the noise. There is no sign that regular units of the army, navy or air force would support a coup d'etat by De Gaulle or anyone else.

Broadly, the trouble is no one knows where De Gaulle stands.

Signs Point to Upturn In Building Contracts

NEW YORK (P)—Signs of an upturn in construction contracts in April were noted by an official of F. W. Dodge Corp. today on the basis of partial figures now available.

George Smith, vice president and economist of the construction news firm, said April contracts for non-residential building in the 37 states east of the Rocky Mountains were up 13 per cent over April 1957.

Two Major Jobs

'Golden Deed Crusade' Is Palsy Month Theme

Sedalia and Pettis County joined 334 other communities in the United States where United Cerebral Palsy affiliates are located during the month of May in recognizing the problem of cerebral palsy.

United Cerebral Palsy of Pettis County, Inc., will call attention to the 1938 May campaign of UCP, which will carry as its theme this year, "The Golden Deed Crusade."

Aaron Haller is the president of the local UCP organization and explained here this week that all affiliates are waging an unrelenting attack on the cerebral palsy problem. In Sedalia and Pettis County the local UCP group has two major jobs, one providing the services to meet the immediate needs of the palsied in this community and the other in supporting the national United Cerebral Palsy programs which serve the long-range needs of research and education.

Haller adds that the United Cerebral Palsy of Pettis County organization pioneered the establishment of the Sedalia Crippled Children's Center. This came about three years ago when it had been determined there were a number of palsied children in this locality who did not have access to various therapies and educational training. UCP was eventually joined by the Polio and Crippled Children's Society organizations in this venture.

Every year, 13,000 children enter the world with cerebral palsy. It is a threat to all families in the community. No family, however well situated, is immune. Even good health is no protection, local UCP officials point out. Cerebral Palsy can come from any accident, which injures the brain—whether before, during or after birth, as is most often the case, or at any time later in life.

As a result, there are now more than 200,000 palsied children in the United States. Totaling this with 200,000 older children and adults who are palsied reflects a vivid picture as to the problem at hand.

There will be no personal drive for funds in the May campaign in Sedalia since the local organization of UCP has been a part of the United Fund in this area. Individual contributions, on a voluntary basis, may be made through coin containers placed in various places of businesses. Donations may also be made through the local postmaster. The bulk of the UCP funds are maintained by the local and state organizations, since only 25 per cent is designated for the national program. The goal for the 1938 UCP campaign in the United States is $11,000,000.

Extension Clubs Donate to Children's Mercy Hospital

The county health project for extension clubs in 1938 was a special contribution to Children's Mercy Hospital.

The 26 clubs donated a total of $200. The check was presented Friday, May 2, to Harry Naegele, a member of the hospital board, by Mrs. Beynon Huntress, council health chairman. This was a part of the County Extension Club Achievement Day program.

Freeze Rhubarb

Stalks or pieces. Choose firm, tender, well-colored stalks with good flavor and few fibers. Wash, trim, and cut into 1 or 2 inch pieces or in lengths to fit the package. Heating rhubarb in boiling water for 1 minute and cooling promptly in cold water helps retain color and flavor.

Unsweetened pack. Pack either raw or preheated rhubarb tightly into containers without sugar. Leave head space, seal and freeze.

Syrup pack. Pack either raw or preheated rhubarb tightly into containers, cover with cold 40 per cent syrup. Leave head space. Seal and freeze.

Puree. Prepare rhubarb as for rhubarb stalks or pieces. Add 1 cup water to 1½ quarts (2 pounds) rhubarb and boil 2 minutes. Cool and press through a sieve. With 1 quart (2 pounds) puree mix ¾ cup sugar. Pack into containers, leaving head space. Seal and freeze.

Juice. Select as for rhubarb stalks or pieces. Wash, trim, and cut into pieces 4 to 6 inches long. Add 1 quart water to 4 quarts (5 pounds) rhubarb and bring just to a boil. Press hot fruit in jelly bag to extract juice. Cool. Sweeten, if desired, using ½ cup sugar to a quart of juice. Pour into containers, leaving head space. Seal and freeze.

Freeze Asparagus

Select young, tender stalks with compact tips. Sort according to thickness of stalk. Wash asparagus thoroughly and cut or break off and discard tough parts of stalks. Leave spears in lengths to fit the package or cut in 2 inch lengths.

Heat stalks in boiling water according to thickness of stalk: small stalks—2 minutes; medium stalks—3 minutes; large stalks—4 minutes. Cool promptly in cold water and drain.

Pack into containers, leaving no head space. When packing spears, alternate tips and stem ends. In containers that are wider at the top than bottom, pack asparagus with tips down. Seal and freeze.

Freeze Mushrooms

Choose mushrooms free from spots and decay. Sort according to size. Wash thoroughly in cold water. Trim off ends of stems. If mushrooms are larger than 1 inch across, slice them or cut them into quarters.

Mushrooms may be steamed or heated in fat in a fry pan.

To steam: Mushrooms to be steamed have better color if given antidarkening treatment first. Dip for five minutes in a solution containing 1 teaspoon lemon juice or ½ teaspoon citric acid to a pint of water. Then steam: Whole mushrooms—5 minutes (not larger than 1 inch across); buttons or quarters—3½ minutes; slices—3 minutes.

Cool promptly in cold water and drain.

To heat in fry pan: Heat small quantities of mushrooms in table fat in an open fry pan until almost done.

Cool in air or set pan in which mushrooms were cooked in cold water.

Pack into containers, leaving ½ inch head space. Seal and freeze.

Standard Oil

Agents Attend

Sales Meeting

Dealers, agents and sales representatives of Standard Oil Company attended a district sales conference at the Bothwell Hotel Wednesday night.

F. M. LeValley, district manager, told the group that the Sedalia area was a big market for petroleum products. Competition is keen and each dealer must be alert to the needs of his customers. The dealer must show courtesy on the service station driveway and be prepared to give good service, he said.

LeValley told the 90 dealers and agents attending the meeting that Standard will spend more for advertising and sales promotion this year than any year in the company's history. Even though there has been some concern about the nation's economy, the company expects sales to be greater than ever before, he said.

New product improvements and new marketing plans were unfolded to the group. Two spectacular contests, designed to spur sales in coming months, were announced at the meeting.

1. For dealers, an "All American" motor oil sales contest. Ford racing wagons will be awarded to winning dealers for outstanding customer service.

2. For dealers and Standard Oil sales representatives, a district managers' appearance and cleanliness campaign. To encourage dealers to maintain clean, attractive service stations with complete customer service, three-day all-expense trips to Chicago will be top prize.

Warsaw Sixth Graders

Make Spring Trip

Sixth grade pupils from Warsaw made their annual Spring trip Thursday, and visited various interesting places, including the Pettis County museum and the Sedalia Democrat in Sedalia. The pupils toured the city during the morning, had lunch at Liberty Park and returned to Warsaw for a roller-skating party.

They were accompanied by the teacher, Virginia Mellen, and Sherman Place, bus driver. Pupils making the trip were: Bobby Chance, John Covert, Bruce Graham, James Ferguson, Carroll Lake, Mike Hirsch, Lawrence Greer, Dennis Johnson, Maureen Foster, Janette Getz, Barbara Ferguson, Delores Clark, Joan Parr, Helen Pickens, Stephen Noland, Roger Hawley, Kenny Shephardson and Jimmy O'Hara.

Aid Effort To Get Sedalia On Airline

By Mrs. T. W. Miller

TIPTON — The Tipton Chamber of Commerce met Thursday, Apr. 24. Among the topics considered at this meeting were repairing of the signs along the highway at the edge of town, aiding Sedalia in its effort to get airline service and encouraging citizens of Tipton to plant flowers that would be in bloom for the centennial.

Marilyn Prestage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Prestage, and Lynn Moss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Moss, appeared in the Ozark Kiddle Carnival over KDRO-TV, Sedalia, Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dueber accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. George Bestgen visited in Sedalia Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Oerkie and Mr. and Mrs. George Semkin.

Mrs. Josephine Hood, Mrs. Norbert Knipp and Mrs. Norbert Schuster honored Miss Agnes Wolf with a personal shower Saturday evening, April 26, at Mrs. Knipp's home. After Miss Wolf opened her gifts Mrs. Knipp and Mrs. Schuster assisted by Mrs. Clyde Johnson served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Dearing had as their guests Harold Niedwimmer and daughter, Joy, and Mr. and Mrs. John Dearing and son, James Donald, Sunday evening. Refreshments were served. This was a joint birthday celebration for Joy and James Donald, grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Dearing.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hickman were recent visitors in Detroit, Mich., in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Hickman and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Muenks entertained with a party at the California Roller Rink, Friday evening April 18, honoring the 13th birthday of their daughter, Dolores, which was April 17. The Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Rosenmiller, Jamestown, were Saturday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Dearing.

Guests included Nancy Johnson, Nancy Kline, Kathleen Kline, Cheryl Knipp, Ruth Ann Claas and Mary Lou Fuks.

David Hardy, Kansas City agent, spent a weekend visit here in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Hardy.

Stonelea Sold

By Harry Walch

To McCurdys

Mr. and Mrs. George T. McCurdy have purchased the farm property known as Stonelea, west of Georgetown, from Harry W. Walch, and are now residing there.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McCurdy are native Pettis Countians, but for a number of years resided in Windham, Conn., where he was in the hatchery business. Mrs. McCurdy is the former Josephine Hanley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Hanley. Mr. McCurdy is the son of the late John McCurdy, judge of the county court.

Stonelea was originally owned by the late A. D. Stanley, for many years president and a principal stockholder in the Sedalia Democrat Co., and Mrs. Stanley. The Stanleys had it as a summer resort, built a house on it for the purpose of entertaining and in 1925 built a beautiful lake. Here they often gave parties for their employees and for their friends. There were private parties held there by other people sometimes, too, and quite often outings for organizations where boating, fishing and swimming were enjoyed, and afterwards picnic dinners served at tables over the grounds.

In 1935, Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Walch built a home there and went there to live, with their four sons. The late Mrs. Walch, who was Maria Inge, was a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley. The Walch family lived at Stonelea until 1942 when they removed to Sedalia. Since then, it has been rented much of the time.

Children's Center

Holds Meeting

Staff members of the Crippled Children's Center held a meeting of parents, education leaders and other interested individuals Thursday afternoon at 2 p.m.

The meeting centered around the training given staff members and volunteer helpers.

Mrs. Rudolph Swope, director of the center, said topics discussed were: "Emotionally Disturbed Children," "Mongolism," "Cleft Palate," "Crabs and Aris," and "Epilepsy." Those presenting the material were Leon K. Whitney, Mrs. Lula Carson, Mrs. Donald Reimer, Mrs. Joe Wright, and Mrs. Swope, staff members. Also assisting in the discussion were Mrs. Georgia Collins, Mrs. Leta Sydenstricker, Mrs. Charles Sebek, and Miss Catherine Scott, volunteer helpers.

Chiropractic Meet

Dr. Roy M. Keller and Dr. J. W. Bryden attended the annual convention of the Chiropractic Society of Missouri, held May 3-4 at the Hotel Governor in Jefferson City. The convention was highlighted by such speakers as Lt. Gov. Edward V. Long, and Dr. Frank Plouffe, West Palm Beach, Fla., president of the National Chiropractic Association.

World's First

Scheduled Air Mail Celebrates Birthday

Sedalia Postmaster Maurice Hogan called attention today to the coming 40th anniversary of the establishment by the United States of the world's first regularly scheduled air mail service on May 15, 1918.

"The start of this air mail service by the United States has been of tremendous importance in aviation history and in the development of commercial aviation all over the world," Hogan noted.

Air mail in this area totals an estimated 50,000 pieces a year, Hogan noted. Today's volume is approximately 150 per cent above ten years ago.

The first flights which started 40 years ago flew between Washington, D. C. and New York City, with a stop at Philadelphia, required about three hours, about three times the time required today. The first air mail planes used were the "Jennies," famous airplanes of the period. Postage for an early air mail letter was 24 cents, but it included special delivery.

The Department was assisted initially in the development of the first air mail runs by the War Department, which furnished the first planes and pilots.

Later, in August, 1918, the Department took over operation of the air mail entirely, and air mail pilots and administrative personnel operating the air mail service were postal employees.

The Department continued to operate and further develop the air mail service until 1926, when transference to common carriers under contract was started, and the transfer was completed in 1927.

"This was the beginning of the great air transport system which we know today, and the Post Office Department is proud of the contributions it has made to the Official State Highway Maps Now Available

Missouri's official 1938 state highway maps now are available for distribution to state highway users. They may be obtained, free of charge, at the State Highway Commission's main office in Jefferson City, at any of the ten district offices in the state, the urban office in Richmond Heights, and at various other places.

Considerable revision has been made in the map's appearance this year, both to make it more serviceable to the highway user and to make it more attractive. The highway map itself shows all roads in the state highway system as of Dec. 31, 1937. In addition, the face of the map carries individual maps of the St. Louis and Kansas City-Independence areas, information on Missouri's speed laws, information on location of State Highway and State Patrol offices, and officials throughout the state, a letter to travelers from and picture of Gov. James T. Blair, Jr., and a mailing panel.

The back of the map also is loaded with information of interest to the highway user. At the top are individual maps showing marked highway routes in Sedalia and 41 other cities and towns of the state. Also on the back are: a mileage chart for Missouri cities and towns; a map of the United States showing principal highways entering Missouri and the distances from Jefferson City to other state capitals; a list of Roadside Parks in the state; a panel listing rules of the road, and a list of cities and towns of the state with their population as of the 1930 census.

Methodist Says Moral

Tone Breaking Down

ST. LOUIS #—There is evidence everywhere that moral behavior is breaking down in our land.

The Rev. Dr. W. Vernon Middleton, general secretary of the Methodist Church Division of National Missions, made that statement to a convention of Methodist women last night.

Dr. Middleton, of Philadelphia, told the Assembly of the Woman's Society of Christian Service crime seems to be rampant, and that persons who live in suburbia cannot assume that crime is confined to the cities. "It affects the moral tone of all our communities," he said.

Dr. Middleton said, "The real seeds of crime are sown in the early years of a child's life." He advocated the teaching of moral and social responsibility in schools.

Young Child Crushed

In Elevator Door

SAN FRANCISCO #—Linda Lee Larsen, 3, ran ahead, as usual, to press the button for the automatic elevator as her babysitter prepared to leave.

The babysitter remained at the door of Linda's suite chatting for a moment. The elevator arrived at the fourth-floor and its outside door opened.

Linda was caught between the inner grill and outer door which closed behind her.

rapid development of commercial aviation," Hogan commented.

Hogan said that he had been advised by Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield that the 40th air mail anniversary will be marked by many groups over the nation. The Post Office Department has been notified, for example, that the Air Mail Pioneers, Inc., an organization of past and present postal employees who were in the early air mail service, is considering plans for this May 15 to reenact the May 15, 1918, flight, using a vintage airplane to carry air mail between Washington, Philadelphia and New York City.

Also, in recognition of the 40th anniversary of the first regular scheduled air mail service, the Post Office Department has authorized dispatch of air mail on a flight May 15, 1938. This is expected to be the reenactment flight.

A special cachet has been authorized for application to covers dispatched on this flight from Washington and Philadelphia.

Covers to receive the special cachet should be sent to the postmasters at Washington and Philadelphia with request to hold for the flight, and must be prepaid at the air mail rate. Covers will be backstamped at termination of the flight and dispatched onward to destination.

In addition to the cachet, the Department is authorizing a one-day "slogan" cancellation reading "40th Anniversary — Air Mail Service" for use by the main post offices at Washington, Philadelphia and New York in cancelling the stamps on letters on May 15, 1938 only.

Meanwhile, Hogan noted that U. S. domestic air mail has shown a tremendous increase in volume since its start 40 years ago.

The early air mail flights carried between 100 and 200 pounds of mail, and only a few million pieces of air mail were flown annually.

The total air mail volume last year was 1,483,291,000 pieces. This is approximately double the volume of 772,185,000 of only ten years ago in 1927.

"The pioneering of regular scheduled air mail service for civilian use by the United States was a notable achievement of world-wide significance and one of which the nation can be very proud," Hogan commented.

Patients Jump

At Command Of

Psycho Gunman

PITTSBURG, Calif. #—The outgoing patients of Community Hospital were waiting in the lobby to depart.

In burst Virdo E. Franklin, 35, with a wild look in his eye and a gun in his hand.

"Jump," he commanded. And the people jumped. Some out of windows, some behind doors, some under counters. Some jumped to attention as commanded.

Franklin held up a sign painted in red, white and blue. It said "Murdered my wife. They stole her heart and two backbone joints."

Mrs. Myrna McClure stuck by her switchboard.

Mrs. Anne Chase, a receptionist, slid down behind the counter and whispered to the switchboard operator for a line.

She called police. Chief Sal P. Jimmo and three officers arrived in a flash. They faced Franklin's gun.

The chief talked for 45 minutes in the face of the pistol. Franklin finally agreed to put up his gun if the chief would call Gov. Goodwin Knight in Sacramento and get back his wife's heart and backbone joints.

They put Franklin in psychiatric ward of the County Seat Hospital at Martinez.

His wife died March 26 of bronchial pneumonia.

Dresden Methodists

Honor Rev. Ezell

Sunday, May 11, the Dresden Methodist Church, will hold recognition services in honor of the Rev. W. H. Ezell, who has served 50 years in the ministry.

His sons, the Rev. Harry Ezell and the Rev. Richard Ezell will have charge of the 11 o'clock services.

Dimmitt Hoffman Is

Guest Speaker At

Extension Meeting

The Smithton Extension Club met April 23 at the Smithton Methodist Church with Mrs. B. Thirig, Mrs. W. O'Leary and Mrs. O. Griffith as hostesses assisted by Mrs. Craig.

The morning program consisted of reports of the projects of the club and on the Show-Off-Show which was held May 2. After the noon luncheon the speaker for the afternoon, Dimmitt Hoffman, accompanied by his wife, talked on delinquency.

Roll call was answered by 21 members. A cake was donated by a visitor for all those having birthdays in April.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. George Meyers on May 28.

Children's Center

Plans Benefit Social

The Crippled Children's Center, Inc., located at Bothwell Hospital, is helping to prepare for the benefit ice cream social to be sponsored by the Kay Jo Kindergarten in behalf of the Center, on the Kindergarten lawn, May 9.

The children are gathering toys to contribute for the fish pond. Mothers are searching through recipe books for favorite cake recipes, in order that there may be plenty of home made cake to serve with ice cream.

The center operates on a year-round schedule and will have only one week vacation, May 23 to June 2. During this week, new volunteer helpers will have the opportunity to come in with regular helpers who can continue through the summer, for a training session, and to plan the program for the summer session.

This summer session will be scheduled for ten weeks: June 2 through Aug. 13, with July 3 and July 4 out for a break. The complete Center operation includes: speech and physical therapies, kindergarten and ungraded classrooms, and extra-curricular activities, to be scheduled at later dates.

Gesture of Faith

TAFT, Calif. #—A group of Catholic boys planted a row of young shade trees along one side of St. Mary's Church.

Yesterday 43 Cub Scouts from the Methodist church planted a row of trees along the other side of the same church.

"A gesture of faith and appreciation for the members of some other church" was the explanation by Packmaster R. T. Ogan.

Before you make any sweeping efforts to redo your child's room, lay your plans as carefully as you do for other rooms.

Children's room furnishings have a way of getting out of hand unless mom makes a plan aimed toward a cheerful, cozy and practical domain for her darling.

Practicality doesn't mean austerity nor the antiseptically clean look.

It does mean a lot of things, including being sensible about purchases and recognizing that a child grows up rapidly.

Furniture that looks so cute or sweet now may be a source of acute embarrassment to a young lady five years from now.

Nor do I think it is practical to accept cast-off furniture for a youngster's room just because it's free. If an old piece can be fitted into a scheme, fine; if not, forget it.

Old-fashioned, straight-backed or rocking chairs, for example, can often be refinished or recovered to make excellent little chairs for a child's room. Early 20th Century chests of drawers, on the other hand, are likely to be too big and bulky for successful conversion.

A good example of a child's room with a rosy present and a promising future is one designed by Barbara Josefoff, a noted Eastern interior decorator.

Herself the mother of four children, her design combines bright, clear colors and modern ideas with 18th Century furniture.

The combination has a grownup air of importance. With but few changes, the room will "grow" with a child from kindergarten right on through the teenage years.

It could be adapted to almost any period. Red, pink, gold and white is the color scheme.

Three walls are white, the wall back of the fourposter bed is bright red.

To increase storage space, Mrs. Josefoff made unique use of venetian blinds to screen off two corner areas on each side of the bed.

The blinds, set in wood frames, are gold-flecked white; two other blinds facing into the room are made with red, pink and white slats for a striped effect.

Back of the blinds is space for clothing and shelves for toys.

Mrs. Josefoff explains that the use of blinds is twofold; it saves space and supplies a decorative effect without having to resort to doors or a variety of materials.

Another interesting idea is her flooring design. Here she has a red-and-white vinyl tile play-area surrounded by peppermint-red carpeting.

This is an area large enough (4x7 feet) for floor-based projects where a mess can be easily cleaned up.

A blackboard set in an old, gilt-painted picture frame invites scribbles and pictures.

Later, the blackboard will be replaced by a mirror and a shelf will be added underneath for a teen-age's dressing table.

If you like traditional furniture and enjoy hunting antiques, you might turn up useful accessories such as miniature chests which can double as nightstands.

You might look for small, pretty, marble-topped tables that can be practical play tables now and later on serve as graceful tea tables for an older girl.

New Model Autos Have Style Change

By DAVID J. WILKIE
Associated Press Auto Editor

DETROIT (AP)—The 1959 autos, which may reach the market somewhat earlier than usual this year, will have broad styling changes; engineering changes will not be of major proportions.

This is indicated in commitments made to suppliers of major subassemblies and parts. There will be larger windshields and rear windows.

There will be more body changes. Some cars will be longer. Barring unexpected changes in planning, the only new shorter length car to appear will be Studebaker-Packard's projected new low price car.

American Motors, only auto maker to sell more cars this year than in comparable 1957, will continue its 108-inch and 100-inch wheelbase Rambler models. It has a 85-inch wheelbase model in its imported Metropolitan.

What 1959 price tags will show is anybody's guess. It has been said the car makers would try to avoid price advances. But they already have served notice higher wages will mean increased prices.

When Edward T. Ragsdale, Buick general manager, made that statement in a Boston address a few weeks ago, it was accepted he was speaking on behalf of the entire General Motors group. If GM advances prices, the remainder of the industry probably will also increase them.

Higher prices may have been a factor in the tightening up of consumer demand. But economic uncertainty probably is the major factor. Some analysts have said dissatisfaction with 1958 model cars also was a consideration.

Industry spokesmen assert that the surge in small car sales had its beginning in a period of high prosperity and full employment; that demand for them did not leap forward with the appearance of the recession.

Sedalia's Guests Of Green Ridge Lodge

Green Ridge Rebekah Lodge held its regular meeting Monday night, May 5, at the hall, with the Noble Grand, Mrs. E. H. Boltz in charge.

The program was opened with an impressive Bible ceremony.

Eleven guests from Loyal Rebekah Lodge, Sedalia, were introduced and welcomed.

The members voted to give a scholarship of $30 to the most deserving senior of Green Ridge school.

Mrs. Otis McNew, Mrs. Loy Smith and Mrs. Glen Heck reported on the four-state convocation of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs held in Des Moines, Ia., which they attended.

A tableau, "Emblems of Our Degree," was presented by ten women, with Mrs. Otis McNew as narrator. Several songs were played by Mrs. Betty Sparks during the tableau. Several songs were also sung by Mrs. McNew and Mrs. Sparks. The program concluded with a solo by Mrs. McNew, "This Is Our Task."

Arrangements and baskets of lilacs added to the attractiveness of the hall. The flower and the emblem of the president of the Rebekah Assembly, Mrs. Sybil Cox, was also used in the decorations.

Mrs. Melvin Ream and Mrs. Bill Hand assisted by several members served refreshments to eleven guests and 31 members during the social hour.

May Queen Crowned At Brownie Revel

Jane Hix was crowned May Queen at the Brownie Revel held in the Windsor High School auditorium Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Susan Wilson and Virginia Donnell were her attendants.

Mrs. Olin Buell was queen mother and drew the names for the queen and her attendants.

The program began with the Brownies of Troop 217 and Troop 160 giving the pledge to the flag followed with the singing of America.

After the coronation a Maypole dance, other little dances by each troop, the Brownie song and the Brownie promise were given and closed with prayer by all the children.

Each child brought a May basket filled with cookies and flowers and they were taken to the Community Rest Home and given to the patients.

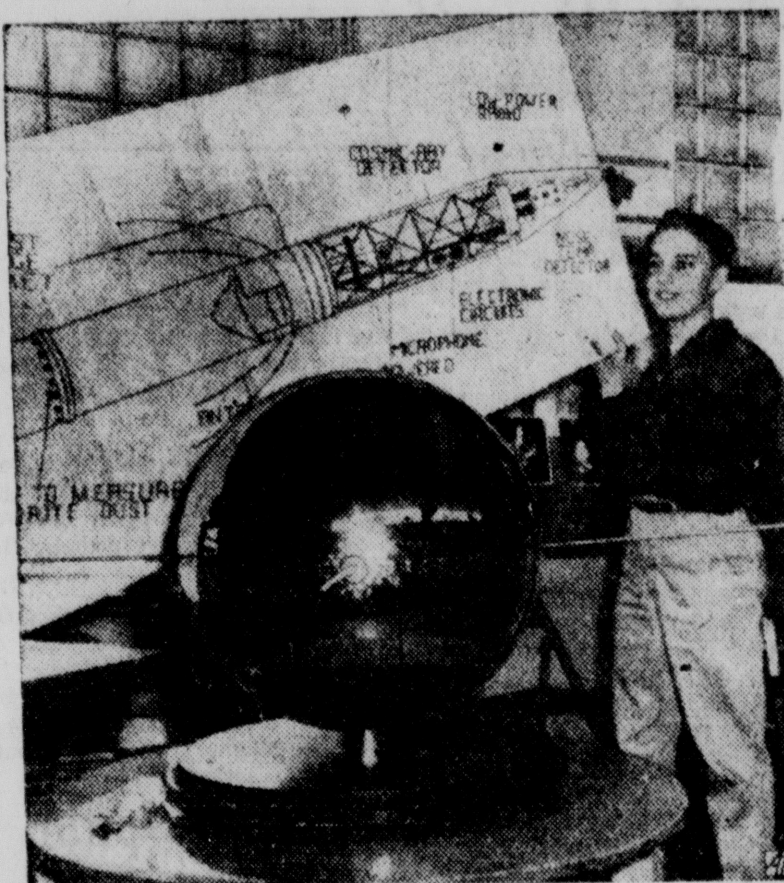

Mrs. Uel Clear was revel chairman. Mrs. Stanley Donnell, Mrs. Leonard Phifer, Mrs. William Shumaker, Mrs. Olin Buell and Mrs. E. E. Elliott are committee members. Mrs. Frank Rushford and Mrs. Russell Miller taught the dances.

Take Advice Of Experts On Savings

It may seem simpler to yank an appliance cord instead of reaching for the plug to disconnect it. But the cords will last longer if you pull on the plug. It is safer, too.

Beware of vegetables that are bruised, wilted or overripe. These frequently are low in food value. This calls for sharper buying at the fruit market or grocery, but pays in the long run. Buying near-perfect vegetables also cuts spoilage.

Many new refrigerators and freezers fit squarely into tight corners. But experts warn of showing such equipment into too tight a niche. To remove heat from the condenser, air must circulate around the freezer of refrigerator.

When ironing, keep your mind on your goal. Sprinkled clothes left standing will mildew in hot weather. Sprinkle only those clothes you intend to iron soon.

A "do-it-yourself" fan often needs a little help. Share your plastic kitchen wrap with him. It will help preserve putty and plaster in their moist state. Also it keeps wet paint brushes pliable for day-to-day painting projects.

Lazy housecleaning turns you into a scrubwoman once or twice a year. One way to cut corners is to utilize all vacuum cleaner attachments. For example, the dusting brush cuts down polishing work with a cloth.

Windsor WSCS Elects Officers for New Year

The May meeting of the WSCS of the Windsor Methodist Church was held Friday afternoon in the church sanctuary.

Meeting opened with the president, Mrs. Ernest Martin, in charge and singing "We've a Story to Tell to the Nations." Mrs. William Butts gave a short memorial for a departed member. It was decided to have the Mother-Daughter banquet Friday evening, May 9, in Wesley Hall.

Geigers Present Program

ABWA Conducts Its Bosses Night Dinner

Bosses Night was featured at the May meeting of the American Business Women Association Tuesday night at Bothwell Hotel, when the members had as guests their bosses and in many cases also the wives of the bosses.

The evening started with the dinner, with Mrs. Mary Maddox giving the invocation.

A welcome to the bosses was given by the president, Miss Ella Peithman, with a clever response from P. A. Sillers in which he gave a long and varied list of definitions of the word "boss."

Each member then introduced herself, her boss and his wife. The guests were: Mrs. Tom Keating, Mrs. Earl Eakins, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Drake, Mr. and Mrs. William D. Steele, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Sillers, Mr. and Mrs. Philip McLaughlin and daughter, Sandra, Mrs. Ray Jiedel, Dr. and Mrs. Heber Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Pinkney Miller, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Parkhurst, Virgil Griffin, Miss Bessie Perkins and John Vogel.

Carolyn Sievers, who has received this year's scholarship from ABWA, was also introduced.

Mrs. Evelyn Rabourn then read an article on the different types of bosses, all of which seemed to be bad, but ended up by saying the members of the Sedalia Chapter of American Business Women Association didn't have bosses like this and they had signed affidavits to this effect. Their bosses were wonderful and each had a heart of gold. They all deserved purple hearts. With that she told them to open their gifts that were at each plate and inside they each found a small purple heart plaque which Mrs. Rabourn asked that the bosses hang in their offices.

The women guests were given white carnation corsages, the ABWA flower, tied with the associational colors of black and gold satin ribbon.

The program was presented by Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence S. Geiger.

At the spot where the Armistice was signed, the Geigers heard a real cuckoo and, commented Mrs. Geiger, it sounded better than the cuckoo in the clock.

One of the unusual things that they saw at Geneva was the flag throwing, which is the twirling of the flag of Switzerland much like the baton twirling in this country.

In London they were on a bus as school was letting out and the teenagers that boarded the bus, she said, acted just like the teenagers do here.

When they arrived home Dr. Geiger asked his wife, that if they were taking the trip again, was there anything she would do that she hadn't done before? She named a few things and then asked him if there was anything he would do that he hadn't done this time. Dr. Geiger replied definitely that there was and when she asked him what it was he replied, "I'd leave my hat at home."

The benediction was by Miss Nellie White.

The speakers table was centered with an arrangement of pink and yellow flowers in a green container on either side of which were lighted green candles in crystal holders. On this table, also, and centering the other tables were sketches of the ABWA emblem in gold on black paper and the white carnation.

George W. Anson was admitted to the bar in 1904, which adds up to 54 years practice in Pettis County.

Judge E. W. Couey, who was admitted to the bar at age 24, is the oldest man in point of practice in the county. He was admitted in 1890, just 25 years after the Civil War. This would place his birth date one year after the war, and add up to 68 years law practice in the area.

John Palmer was admitted to the bar at age 31, in 1897, and gave him a total of 61 years practice.

H. D. Dow was admitted in 1898 for a total of 60 years practice.

Legislative Bills Discussed at Meeting

The Disabled American Veterans, Charles Aubin Tarr Chapter 7, discussed pending legislative bills that will effect all veterans at a meeting held at the Pettis County court house Thursday night. Willard Morris, commander, presided.

The meeting was attended by about 23 veterans. Several new members were signed.

Congressman Morgan M. Moulder will speak on pending legislative bills at the Veterans' next meeting, for which the date still has to be announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marcum and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hickerson and Dana Sue, Fayette.

The Nelson Cemetery Club met at the church on Monday evening and elected officers for the new year. Elected were Mrs. Will McGraw, president; Mrs. Kenneth Smith, vice-president; Miss Edith Richardson, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Paul Barnes, chaplain.

Dewey Thorpe, Blackwater was hired as the caretaker. Memorial services will be held on Sunday, May 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parsell and family, Eldorado, Kan. are visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Porter Tanner. They are moving soon to the old Tucker farm south of Nelson now owned by Frank McGraw, Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. Estil Skinner and family have purchased the home of Mrs. Mollie Kuykendall and plan to move in the near future. [Phone TA 6-1000.]

Zsa Zsa Says She Will Sue Congressman

WASHINGTON (AP)—Zsa Zsa Gabor says she'll sue Rep. Wayne Hays (D-Ohio) for slander if he repeats outside of Congress his remark that she "apparently is the most expensive courtesan since Madame de Pompadour."

Hays made the remark Wednesday during House debate on the foreign aid bill. He was referring to expensive gifts given Miss Gabor by Lt. Gen. Rafael Trujillo Jr., son of the Dominican Republic's strong man.

Speaking through a public relations firm, Miss Gabor a few hours later challenged Hays "to come out from behind the congressional walls of immunity and repeat his statement about me."

"I will sue him for his slanderous statements," she said. Miss Gabor is here to fill a night club engagement.

There was no immediate comment from Hays.

The 29-year-old Trujillo, who is married and has six children, has given Miss Gabor a $17,000 chinchilla coat and a car. Trujillo, in this country as a military student, also has given a car to actress Kim Novak.

During the House debate, Hays tried to cut off aid to the Dominican Republic, but his amendment was defeated 79-32.

Hays quoted a telegram from the Dominican ambassador as saying young Trujillo is paying his expenses out of a $50,000 monthly allowance from his father. The ambassador entered his protest against congressional discussion of Trujillo's private affairs.

Noting that the aid bill carries $600,000 for the Dominican Republic, Hays said that just equals the young general's allowance for a year.

"If he continues fooling around Zsa Zsa Gabor, who apparently is the most expensive courtesan since Madame de Pompadour, the old man will have to raise the ante," Hays told the House, which greeted his remarks with laughter.

Madame de Pompadour was mistress to King Louis XV of France.

Graham Calls For More Love And Less Lust

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham called for less lust and more love last night before 14,900 in the 16,500 seat Cow Palace.

"Sensual love is lust," he said. "God gave sex for four reasons: to love properly, to set up a home, bring children and supply creative energy."

Graham, in his third week of his six-week San Francisco crusade, told a news conference this was the fourth time in his career that he has discussed sex from the pulpit.

He called it a delicate subject but added it was high time that ministers spoke out. "Everybody else is speaking on it," he said.

"Every phase of life is invaded by sex. . . . The sex revolution is changing our society faster than any other revolution," he told the audience. He said salesman of immoral literature do more to ruin the nation than communism. He declared "no age has ever emphasized sex more and enjoyed it less."

Graham said immorality could be committed by thought, seeing, speaking, dressing and consuming improper literature.

"Don't dilly-dally with thought, thinking that you can avoid the act," he said. "It won't work. You can expel one desire only by a higher desire. With Christ, sin shall not rule your life."

There were 312 "decisions for Christ" at the meeting.

by colleges waved pro-Nixon signs and whooped it up as if at a football rally while two high school bands tooted along the sidelines.

Eisenhower and Nixon laughed heartily at one of the placards which greeted Mrs. Nixon with the word: "Viva la Blond."

Nixon has blamed the rock-throwing demonstrations against him in Venezuela and Peru on the Communists. But for some unexplained reason he shied away from saying this Thursday in so many words.

In his airport remarks he identified those responsible as "a very small, violent vocal minority." He said they enlisted the support of "some innocent people who were misled as to what the United States' intentions really were."

He assured everyone that the great majority of South Americans are friendly to the United States despite these outbursts against him.

But, he acknowledged, many persons he talked with disagreed with U. S. policies, partly because of economic problems confronting them.

"In Latin America," he said, "we have an area which is in a sense in a state of evolution, and as far as the people there are concerned, they are concerned—as they should be—about poverty and misery and disease which exists in so many places."

"They are determined to do something about it."

Airborne Returns From Trip to Caribbean

FT. CAMPBELL, Ky. (AP)—High-spirited airborne troops returned to home base Thursday—some by parachute—after a quick and dramatic flight to the Caribbean to help if necessary in protecting Vice President Nixon.

They weren't needed—Nixon returned home to Washington—but the "Screaming Eagles" of the 101st Airborne Division demonstrated their ability to go where American lives and property require their services.

The battle-ready troops—more than 500 of them—left here after two-hour notice last Tuesday and were back less than 48 hours later on completing their 3,000-mile round trip.

Finds Himself In Jail For Own Safety

LIBERTY, Mo. (AP)—James Ira Cavery is glad to find out he's being held in jail only for his own safety.

"I was getting worried," he said.

Cavery is credited with breaking up a car theft ring which operated in six northwest Missouri counties. At least seven persons have been arrested. Warrants are out for two others. And Cavery still is in jail.

"He deserves a medal for his help rather than being made to appear a suspected criminal," said Chief Ben Griffin of the Cameron, Mo., police department. Chief Griffin and Sheriff Leland Houghton of Daviess County came to Liberty to arrange for Cavery's release. They said he is held only for his own safety and probably will be released soon.

Cavery is 50 and his home is at Gilman City, Mo.

He hit Cameron April 6 looking for a job, hungry, and with no place to stay. Chief Griffin gave him a night's lodging in jail and sent him off the next morning to Hamilton, Mo., where he knew some road work was under way.

Cavery was back in Cameron in a few days. He'd received similar lodging in the Hamilton jail, he reported, and a night watchman had propositioned him about helping to dispose of a stolen car.

Chief Griffin sent Cavery back to Hamilton again to see if he could learn more.

Cavery hitchhiked the 13 miles to Cameron again on April 26 and reported this time he was in a position to deliver a stolen car to the chief.

The plot was set and sure enough Cavery called in at 9 p. m. to report he had the car near Lawson, Mo., and come quick because two members of the gang were following him.

Chief Griffin and Troopers Walter Bryan and Lawrence Jefferson of the Missouri Highway Patrol sped to the rendezvous.

To protect Cavery, they charged him with using an automobile without the owner's permission and put him in jail at Liberty. They hoped the ruse might help them find the two ringleaders.

The fugitives are Joe Evans, Hamilton night watchman, and Tommy Thompson of DeKalb County.

Cavery's home near Bethany, Mo., burned last October and two of his five children perished. He was in Kansas City at the time looking for a job.

'Flying Jenny' Reenacts First Air Mail Run

WASHINGTON (AP)—An authentic 1918 "Flying Jenny" reenacts the first U.S. air mail service in this country.

Leon D. ("Windy") Smith, who says only he is "over 60," was called back to an old, familiar job in manning the controls of the "Jenny" for a memorial flight from Washington to Philadelphia to New York City.

Smith was one of the original pilots when the Post Office Department established the first airborne postal deliveries between these cities on May 15, 1918. He now operates a private flying service and aviation training school at Pine City, N.Y.

In a talk prepared for take-off ceremonies at Washington National Airport, Deputy Postmaster General Edson O. Sessions recalled the first airmail takeoff was from the old Polo Grounds near Washington Monument.

"There, perhaps more than at any other place," he said, "America's great commercial aviation industry was born, because air mail demonstrated the practical feasibility of the flimsy airplane of that era for commercial use."

Letters from Postmaster General Summerfield to the postmasters at Philadelphia and New York were assigned to the special flight, along with a load of specially marked letters sent in by philatelists and destined to become collectors' items.

The memorial flight and the observations in many other cities are being sponsored by Air Mail Pioneers, Inc. made up of early air mail service employees.

County To Distribute Surplus Food To Needy

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Jackson County will start distributing surplus government food to the needy unemployed Monday.

Henry J. Seitter, director of the emergency relief program, said 150 food orders have been sent out for the first time. More will be issued for next Wednesday and Friday.

Seitter reported his unit received 963 applications for emergency food and 1,400 already have been approved. About 100 were rejected because the applicants were not eligible or they filed duplicate requests. In one case a man applied through four different agencies.

Those receiving the food orders were instructed to bring containers sufficient for a month's supply of milk, cheese, butter, rice, flour and cornmeal.

Ike Signs Bill to Build Arena for Olympics

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower Thursday signed a bill financing construction of an arena for the 1960 Winter Olympic Games at Squaw Valley, Calif.

The $4 million dollar project will be built with funds already available to the Defense Department. It will be constructed on government-owned land. After the Olympic Games it will be used for recreational purposes by the state of California, with the government receiving a percentage of the proceeds.

Demonstration Solves Mystery For Officials

BARAGA, Mich. (AP)—Some 200 forestry officials now know exactly what is dropped on a forest fire when a plane bombards it with chemicals.

While they gazed skyward to watch a demonstration, U. S. Forest Service pilot Milt Nelson of Ely, Minn., miscalculated his target and drenched them with 120 gallons of paste-like borax derivative and water. They got an eye full.

Highway Patrolman Robert Hightower, who was born and reared in Marshall, suffered Monday evening the loss of the big toe on his left foot in a power mower accident at his home in Lexington.

Trooper Hightower was cutting the grass on the lawn at his home. The grass was damp and Trooper Hightower's foot slipped and his toe so severely cut by the mower's blade that it had to be amputated at the hospital in Lexington.

Following the amputation, Trooper Hightower was dismissed from the hospital, but has been suffering much pain from his injury. Mrs. Lon Thomas of Marshall, mother of Mrs. Hightower, reported this morning.

The injury will necessitate Patrolman Hightower being off duty for several weeks. The former Marshall resident has charge of a radar car for the state patrol. Prior to that he gave driver license examinations in this part of the state and visited Marshall twice weekly.
